

"Grant Cameron"
<presidentialufo@presidency.com>

Subject: Re: Mr. X Question

From: fidelio47 Robert Collins

To: Parks, Brian

Cc: Grant Cameron, George Knapp, Hal Puthoff, John Edmonds, Kit Green, Robert Morningstar, tuklonashoba@gmail.com, ChrisIversen, LeeNicholson

Date: 07/13/12 01:26 PM

As Bill told me in 1985, he met the real Falcon in 1979 just after his Roswell book came out. Falcon told him then that he was the only one on the right track and as you know other insiders wanted to get the true story out. That became the Reagan Disclosure with Bob Gates and Henry Kissinger standing behind us as Jaimie told or passed onto me.

The Reagan Disclosure program died in 1991 as described in the EfD. The bad guys were winning. All other Presidents since Reagan have been against any Disclosure. We had NSA and AF Intelligence watching us constantly as you know, non stop.

As for Alexander, I don't think anybody likes the guy including me, he is spreading too many rumors and a government kiss ass IMO. The typical stereotype of a sleazy Army Col like some AF Cols I use to know that get under your skin. Wanted to punch them out.

Anyhow, all those negative attitudes give me my gun ho attitude. The more challenging the better. I'm a thrill seeker...Cheers

Parks, Brian wrote:

From what I gather, and you can read some of this in "Project Beta" by Bishop, Moore met with Falcon a few times in the early days. After that Doty took over those activities. Then in 1985 you entered the picture and were involved with the Aviary meetings. I was aware of some of this activity from mid 1983 onward, but I was never given names of those involved.

Why Alexander thinks these meetings never took place is bizzare. Maybe he feels left out and that is his way of trying to dismiss the whole thing, or he knows better and is simply lying.

From: fidelio47 [fidelio47@earthlink.net]

Sent: Thursday, July 12, 2012 10:24 PM

To: Parks, Brian

Cc: Grant Cameron; George Knapp; Hal Puthoff; John Edmonds; Kit Green; Robert Morningstar; tuklonashoba@gmail.com; ChrisIversen; LeeNicholson

Subject: Re: Mr. X Question

Yep, speculative is the word and BS in places. Yes, Kit did run around Washington in the eighties looking for Mr X but never found him. And, guess who set up most of the Aviary meetings? I did. As for Moore not meeting Rositzke, more BS.

Spouting off. I was there, not Grant...Rmc

The Falcon – The Falcon was one of the two most important birds. Moore has now confirmed that he believed Falcon to be Harry Rositzke - a former high ranking CIA official who was brought out of retirement claiming to represent a group of government insiders who wanted the UFO story put into the public. Moore apparently never met Rositzke but calculated who he must have been.

Parks, Brian wrote:

Bob:

I may have deleted an e-mail you sent trying to clean out my overloaded In Box. The last two weeks have been very busy.

I recall you said something about Kit and Mr. X and I was not sure if you meant to suggest he went looking for this person in DC or something else?

Also, Grant Cameron has posted a very long speculative article at his website on Falcon:

<http://www.presidentialufo.com/>

Can't say I agree with some of it, but interesting I think you will find!