

It is believed that one of the reasons that President Carter might not have been given the secret of the UFOs, is that they could not trust him to keep his mouth shut.
In 1980 Carter gave support to this idea when he slipped and leaked the fact that the U.S. military was working on a stealth program.

