CARTER BRIEFING

FULL TEXT OF "EXECUTIVE BRIEFING: PROJECT AQUARIUS"

[ORTK Editor's Note: The following transcript of an alleged MJ-12 briefing provided to then President Jimmy Carter has been provided by researcher Lee Graham, a recipient of the document. Graham states that he received the document on June 13, 1991 from researcher William Moore, with the permission of a Defense Intelligence Agency official code-named "Falcon," a member of the "aviary." These notes were allegedly used by a lone MJ-12 briefing officer to provide an oral briefing to President Carter at the White House on June 14, 1977. We(ORTK) are republishing the contents of this document based on letters to Mr. Graham from the Department of Energy and the Air Force Operations Test and Command informing him that the document is "not classified" (and apparently genuine), except for the cover page, which contains a still-classified symbol (see the cover page preceding the transcript). Readers should understand that the authenticity of this document remains in question and should draw their own conclusions on reading the text below. Explanatory notes are included in parentheses and in bold print.]

[Robert Collins' Notes 08-12-96: From all the checking that this side has done the "Carter document" in question is not a legitimately classified government document. But, from government intelligence sources it is a "reconstruction" of a briefing given to then President Carter on 77/06/14. The briefing was "reconstructed" from a number of independent sources who attended it. By these sources sitting down together they were able to pool their notes written down after the briefing and come up with the "reconstruction" shown here. That's why on the originals some of the page numbers were "penned" in: The reader is cautioned that some of the information may be false: Some of it may be disinformation/misinformation and that one should read this with an open mind towards skepticism. One may notice grammar or spelling errors. This I understand was a way of tracking the document: The reader should also be able to notice this in the "MJ-12 documents" as well. Recent source information however has stated that from their review of the "Carter document" that it appears essentially correct.

The White House record on that date indicates that President Carter met with his National Security Adviser Dr Brzezinski: The name "Project Aquarius" is also the same name associated with another "Aquarius" at the National Security Agency or NSA. But, reportedly this Top Secret "Aquarius" has to do with Advanced Communications Theory/Systems and not UFOs. But, NSA was quoted in a letter back on January 27th, 1987 that they knew of an Air Force program named "Aquarius" that had been connected with UFOs.[end notes]

Grant,

In the Presidential Diary lists, all meetings with the Pres. of CIA and Secret Service personnel are sanitized, so their names wouldn't be on the read-out of who meets with the President.

Albert Nason

PS:

On another matter, I am investigating Carter's famous sighting of his UFO. Schaeffer sort of debunked the sighting since the Lion's Club records indicate that Carter was not in Leary Ga. in October 1969 but in January, which is when Schaeffer insists the sighting occurred. And as Venus was in the ascendant, Schaeffer insists that was what Carter saw. (I think that as an Annapolis graduate in naval science, JC would have recognized the planet Venus! Also, he says his UFO looked as large as the moon.)

The angle I am investigating is the YEAR. Carter writing in 1973 recalled the sighting as happening in Oct 1969. I am wondering, however, if he might have telescoped this in his memory, so that his Leary sighting was in Oct 1967 rather than Oct 1969. I want to check the records to see if by chance Carter was at the Lions Club of Leary in 1967.

My reasons for wanting to do this are twofold: 1) the year 1967 was a record year for UFO sightings in Georgia, and if Carter were seeing them, other people probably were too and (2) I was in college with Carter's son Chip, at Georgia Southwestern College and I seem to recall him mentioning his father's seeing a UFO--only I left Southwestern in June of 1969, which PRECEDES the Oct 1969 date.

Also, I don't think JC and the Lions Club members would have been idling outside the Club in January! as Schaeffer theorizes.

While researching at the National Security Archives here in Washington I came across a document detailing two UFO briefings given to President Carter. The man at the center is Harvey Jack McGeorge.

Could you give me an idea of what material might be at the library on McGeorge? I am interested in how often he met with the President, and if he has a set of files in the archives.

Here is an e-mail that I sent to a dozen researchers as we prepare to interview McGeorge.

The discovered three-page document involves statements that were made by a friend of Harvey Jack McGeorge. McGeorge worked in the secret service at the Carter White House as a munitions counterweapons specialist. (7/77 - 5/80)

I was searching for a document (in the collection of Scott Malone, a PBS investigative reporter) detailing a Carter official who was in on one of the two UFO briefings given to Jimmy Carter by the NSA. I found it.

The man is Harvey Jack George. The biomaterial in the document I found agrees with his homepage.

<http://www.psgcabo.com/jack.html>

The story of the NSA briefing he tells is amazing. McGeorge claims to have been in one of the briefings. It involves Carter being told of the history of UFOs, why the aliens are here etc. The second hand account also details how President Carter was shown the Holloman AFB film, (a 15 minute film where aliens land at the base and are greeted by base officials- George HW Bush just confirmed to a researcher last weekend he had been briefed on the film while DCI director under Ford). McGeorge also details reason for the cover-up (at least the version told to Carter).

As to the reason for the coverup.

"According to McGeorge, the two main reasons the government is withholding the truth about UFOs are the religious question, and the fact that we do not have control of the situation. They are in charge. According to McGeorge, if the Bible said that God created the Heaven and the Earth, what the hell do the aliens believe in? The thing that the aliens fear most is that man would find out that they are not the creation of an omnipotent supreme being, but possibly the creation of tghе aliens themselves - that we are a genetic experiment. And they fear greatly that religion as a controlling factor on behavior in the world - if the truth was known that the controlling factor would immediately be destroyed and there might be anarchy. The second reason - that we are not in control - I think is pretty obvious."

McGeorge claimed that he entered Carter's office 30 minutes after the briefing and Carter had tears in his eyes.

The McGeorge document is a fax from Gus Russo to Scott Malone. Russo is providing a lead for a possible documentary on UFOs being considered by the show "Frontline." The fax document was in a collection of files given by Malone to the National Security Archives at George Washington University. There is no indication Malone followed up except a handwritten notation stating McGeorge couldn't be found.

Russo states that "McGeorge gave an account to a friend who in turn told Harry Lebelson, then of Omni magazine." Russo stated he had obtained a tape of Lebelson interview from researcher Bill Laparl in which he relates the story. In the document Russo then quotes sections of the interview.

I hope you can help provide some background info on this man.

Subject: Re: Carter UFO Briefing

Grant,

Carter met with Billy Graham 9 or 10 times at Congressional prayer breakfasts, etc, but the only White House contact was Nov 1 1979 dinner with religious leaders and Nov 2 1979 meeting with religious leaders. Carter was not especially close to Graham, and their religious views and feelings were not that close either. I have a hard time believing that JC would call Graham in for hand-holding for a UFO briefing, which would be a national security issue for Carter not a religious one.

He's not one of those literal minded fundamentalists who would freak out with the idea that there is life elsewhere in the universe. For the same reason, I was instantly doubtful of the story you sent yesterday about McGeorge seeing Carter teary-eyed after a UFO briefing. Jeez Louise, Carter was an Annapolis grad, an engineer, studied nuclear physics, had no trouble with evolution, had a very sophisticated Trilateral view of geopolitics.

Just because he has talked openly about his religious beliefs people tend to jump to the conclusion that he was some simpleminded superstitious ignoramus. I had a inquiry a few months back asking me to confirm that JC on a trip from Moscow to Bagdad had Air Force One circle around the Caucausus and buzz Mount Ararat, where he and his staff caught a glimpse of Noah's Ark. (The inquirer located it at Mount "Arafat"!)

I was able to confirm that this discovery did NOT take place, since Carter never went to Moscow, never went to Bagdad, and so never flew over Mount Ararat in between, besides which Mt Ararat on the border of Soviet Union and Turkey was one of the most watched over "no-fly" zones in the world. The jackass making the inquiry had a hard time accepting these facts--I mean, after ALL, a detour over Noah's Ark was just what you'd think a born-again Christian president would do!...(if you though like a simplistic jackass!) He'd probably come across the story in a bar somewhere or in National Inquirer. We get requests to confirm these bar tales all the time, they're like urban legends, and Carter's name gets plugged into them. There was one a month ago, asking me to confirm that JC threatened to take away the tax exempt status of the Mormon church because they didn't admit Black ministers at that time...but again, nope! Carter kept OUT of religious controversies, was a firm believer in separation of church and state, but this urban legend SOUNDED like something the public thought he would do--like weep and hold hands with Billy Graham at a UFO briefing. People think in such stereotypes.

I admire the way you check these UFO briefing stories out before giving them credence. Billy Graham said when Nixon was president that he had been friends with every US president since Franklin Roosevelt. Harry Truman was still alive and grumped when he heard the Graham quote, "Hmph, I was president between Roosevelt and Nixon, and Graham was no friend of mine!"

Although the McGeorge Carter briefing document may now be disproved, notes from investigative reporter Gus Russo has even more dramatic claims.

Quote

"Scott Jones, former aide to Sen Claiborne Pell - extremely well connected, with numerous highly placed sources, former ONI, runs the well-funded Human Potentials Foundation (Laurance Rockefeller); claims to have information on presidential briefings, including three sources on Carter briefing. Told STEFULA (a researcher I am interviewing) that Billy Graham 'Holds president's hands' during UFO briefings."

We have contact with Scott Jones, and plan to interview him. Jones was with Laurance Rockefeller when they briefed Clinton Science Advisor Jack Gibbons in 1993.

The question - can you give me the dates when Billy Graham was in the Carter White House?

Grant

In late December 2001, chief presidential speechwriter Mike Gerson "was parcelling out the components of the forthcoming State of the Union speech. His request to me," recalls David Frum in his new book The White House in The Right Time: The Surprise Presidency of George W. Bush, "could not have been simpler: I was to provide a justification for a war." And so was born the phrase "the axis of evil."

hey grant -- i'm definitely interested in learning more. i've written to carter for details and (of course) he never writes back. it'd be kinda neat to put some more solid information in the public domain to see if Mr. I'll Never Lie To You feels compelled to respond. unfortunately, tomorrow's my last day in the office for about a week. but i'd love to talk to you about this so we can at least attempt to create a buzz. let me know. thanks for the consideration. bcox

It turns out that Kilgallen had written a syndicated report from London on 22 May 1955 for the International News Service which stated, in part:

"British scientists and airmen, after examining the wreckage of one mysterious flying ship, are convinced these strange aerial objects are not optical illusions or Soviet inventions, but are flying saucers which originate on another planet.

"The source of my information is a British official of Cabinet rank who prefers to remain unidentified. 'We believe, on the basis of our inquiry thus far, that the saucers were staffed by small men--probably under four feet tall. It's frightening, but there is no denying the flying saucers come from another planet.'

"This official quoted scientists as saying a flying ship of this type could not possibly have been constructed on earth. The British government, I learned, is withholding an official report on the 'flying saucer' examination at this time, possibly because it does not wish to frighten the public." [Los Angeles Examiner 5-22-55]

According to one UFO researcher cited by author Timothy Good, Ms. Kilgallen obtained this story while attending a cocktail party hosted by Lord Mountbatten. [GOOD p.44]

The second document is a remarkable recent letter from former Senator Barry Goldwater. He makes two astounding admissions, previously unknown: He was a "very close friend" of Roswell Base Commander Col. 'Butch' Blanchard, who presumably was his source about the alien wreckage at Writ-Pat. Second, the Roswell crash was indeed the specific information Goldwater says he sought "diligently to get [from] General LeMay," which resulted in "the only cussing out he ever gave me..."

Goldwater has also recently disclosed that Gen. LeMay actually threatened to have him "court-martialed" he ever asked about Writ-Pat again.

It should also be noted here that Anne Blanchard, widow of Gen. Blanchard, told Stanton Friedman in 1979 that her husband knew what he had sent to Carswell was NOT a balloon. "He knew it was nothing made by us," she told Friedman. "At first he thought it might be Russian because of the STRANGE SYMBOLS on it. Later on, he realized it wasn't Russian either." [MOORE p.42]

Both of these documents and their contents should be treated in the strictest confidence for the time being.

RE:UFO_UPDATE

I trust you had a restful vacation. I'm sorry I haven't been able to get my UFO memo to you. I pray I didn't cause you any sleepless nights under the palm trees.

Several personal problems have arisen, including my mother breaking two ribs in a swimming pool accident, which have caused my attention to wander. Further, the two authors with the most extensive sourcing on Roswell have both been traveling around the country promoting their book. When I do manage to contact them, they have been without the various specific files or documents I have been seeking. They both expect to be back next week at their respective homes. So I still have to obtain certain documents and have various facts checked based on their interviews.

And pursuant to your request for all the information on the "dissenters" to the Roswell story, I have been attempting to obtain a copy of a research paper prepared by Carl Flock, late of the CIA. I hope to succeed this week. Mr. Flock, unfortunately, is apparently working with some independent documentary film maker, and may perceive us as competition. As a consequence, I hope to obtain it through other means.

Attached, please find two new documents which just crossed my desk yesterday and today. The first is an alleged 3 AUG 62 TOP SECRET CIA report on the subject of, of all things, Marilyn Monroe and RFK. The memo quotes wiretaps of telephone conversations between columnists Dorothy Kilgallen and her "close friend" Howard Rothberg. Rothberg was talking about various secrets that Monroe had "to tell."

"One such 'secret' mentions the visit by the [the President] at a secret air base for the purpose of inspecting [things] from outer space. Kilgallen replied that she knew what might be the source of visit. In the mid-fifties Kilgallen learned of a secret effort by US and UK governments to identify the origins of [crashed spacecraft and dead bodies,] from a British government official. Kilgallen believed the story may have come from the [the New Mexico _____] in the late forties. Kilgallen said that if the story is true, it would cause terrible embarrassment for Jack and his plans to have NASA put man on the moon." [CIA 8-3-62]

This document goes on to refer to other wiretaps of Monroe making reference to her knowledge of the Castro plots, and how she was being "ignored by the President and his brother." All of these references correlate with subsequently released data.

The significance of this apparently real [subject to confirmation] document, is the "references" notation at the top right: "MOON DUST Project." This is indeed the designator of the then TOP SECRET USAF space debris/UFO recovery unit. The primary concern of the CIA, which, unlike the State Department, was previously unknown to have been involved in MOON DUST, seems to be the leakage of a presidential visit to a secret base, and a "crashed spacecraft and dead bodies..."

WARNING: UNEVALUATED INTELLIGENCE INFORMATION

(This information has yet to be confirmed by ANY primary sources)

(C) According to several sources who have spoken with him, "ET" writer and "E.T. the Extra-Terrestrial" producer Ernie Shandera tells a very intriguing story that Hollywood producer/director Steven Spielberg had related directly to him. Spielberg is said to have told Shandera about a special White House screening of the movie "ET" for President Ronald Reagan. At the conclusion of the film, President Reagan told Spielberg that "you don't know how close to the truth you are." President Reagan is further reported to have told Spielberg that there "are only three or four people in the world who know the whole truth." Other variations include 2 or 3 people "here" (presumably meaning the screening room), or 3 or 4 people "in the building" (presumably meaning the entire White House), "who know the whole truth." (REFLINER/WHITING 4-21-94)

(C) A Hollywood producer who wishes to remain anonymous (for obvious reasons), reports that special effects (fx) wizard Rick Baker had a falling out with producer Spielberg over changes made in a script that eventually became the blockbuster "ET." While not in attendance, the source states that the source heard directly from several people who attended various pre-production meetings with both Baker and Spielberg. According to these attendees, the original script was much "darker" story about a dramatic standoff and shootout between an all-American family and a pack of aliens.

Baker had already begun to design the aliens, when Spielberg announced that he was going to scrape that theme entirely. After some prodding by Baker, Spielberg allegedly told those assembled that he (Spielberg) had had a visit from "some government suits" who had suggested that Spielberg "should make it nicer -- warm the populace," not scare them. Baker apparently objected vehemently that they shouldn't be meddling with the direction of the government, and he subsequently quit the project.

Ernie Shandera apparently later made up and published a book about "ET" and of a subsequent, Baker may not be as accurate. (REFLINER/WHITING 4-21-94, P-12-94)

Dear Mr. Speriglio:

Thank you for writing Mr. Casey concerning the recent news coverage regarding the investigation of Marilyn Monroe's death. We appreciate the fact that you have gone on record stating that the Central Intelligence Agency was not involved in Marilyn Monroe's death. Actually, the CIA had nothing to do with her death and our Agency has vehemently denied such reports by the media.

We congratulate you on your excellent record as Director of the Nick Harris Detective Agency and encourage you to continue your good work.

Dear Mr. Jeffrey:

You touch something very close to me, by your letter. Roswell has long been a point of great interest to me, since the first UFO's turned up. You see, I both believe in UFOs and I don't believe in them. My argument is that God, in creating the universes as he did, would not just have made one planet with living things.

Butch Blanchard was a very close friend of mine. I worked with him in the Air Force, and am almost certain that I knew your father, the Colonel. There is not much we can do about getting the things about Roswell that you would like. I tried diligently to get them from General LeMay, and the only cussing out he ever gave me, was when I very vociferously asked him for information.

It was nice to hear from you. I guess we'll just keep on trying.

Sincerely,

Barry Goldwater

Memo For: Mike Sullivan
Scott Malone

From: John Newman

Subject: Authenticity of August 3, 1962, CIA Information Report (IR)

1. The message externals of this document are valid for a standard CIA field IR. The report number, date of distribution, number of pages, references and field report number are in the right order and position on the top right hand portion of this document. Likewise the country, subject, date of information, and date and place of acquisition on the upper left portion.

2. One anomaly is the preprinted source evaluation line. The Agency has different versions for their case officers to use depending on whether the case officer feels the source has been evaluated in the past. Enclosed find two different versions I have located. One says, "Source evaluations are definitive; appraisal of content is tentative"; and the other simply says, "This is unevaluated information." Your subject document appears to be a third version of this, but is too poor a copy to render a reading. Note that part of it is redacted before the letters "ALUATED."

3. The subject document is cut off at the top, with the result that the reverse background "Information Report" header above the CIA header is no longer visible. The CIA header, and the Title 18 warning against unauthorized disclosure are the right items and in the right positions.

4. Typically, an IR begins with a line or a paragraph on the source. The subject document follows this normal practice. Typically, this information on the source is not a numbered paragraph. The subject document matches this pattern as well. After the source information, paragraphs are normally numbered, one-up, with the numbers indented eight spaces from the left margin. The subject document follows this pattern too. Content is normally single spaced with double spaces between paragraphs. This, too, is the case with the subject document.

5. In short, gentlemen, your document appears to me to be a genuine CIA field information report -- based upon the format.

6. Interesting little IR isn't this? I am afraid I can't vouch for any of the content. I have made an preliminary analysis of the brackets which appear around certain parts of the text. Normally, this indicates the document is being prepared for sanitization, either for release or release at a lower level of classification. Therefore, the brackets suggest that the document was in the stage before this release, having already had other portions blacked out. The bracketed items, therefore, should be the most sensitive items. This works for me in the subject document in every case except one: this is where -- if it had been me -- I would have bracketed "outer space" or "things from outer space" instead of "things" (see middle of paragraph one).

7. I hope this rough analysis is useful to you.

SUBJ: The Signature of James J. Angleton

1. Scott dug out a cleaner copy of the Moon Dust Information Report (IR) yesterday, one which has an apparent signature by Angleton.
2. I scratched around in my files and located about the only example of his signature I have. I have enclosed blow-ups of the signatures: the example from my files is on the top and the signature on the Moon Dust IR is just below it for comparison. The similarity is much stronger than the difference. In fact I would argue that the similarity is dramatic.
3. I suppose a hand-writing analysis by a credentialed expert would be the way to go. In the absence of going that far, I would say that the signature on the Moon Dust IR is either Angleton's or someone's who is very good at faking his signature. Of these two possibilities, my guess is that it is his signature.
4. If it is an authentic signature, I believe that would up the ante with respect to the IR's content.

All the best,

John Newman

SUBJ: PRELIMINARY UFO REVIEW

SUMMARY:

98% of this story so far has turned out to be unadulterated bull shit. Yet, if even ONE PERCENT turns out to be true, it would be the greatest story of the millenium, if not of all time!

The most promising avenues for further exploration are the alleged presidential briefings, the top secret USAF recovery units which put the "big lie" to Project Bluebook, and the mother of all incidents, Roswell.

1957 ENCOUNTERS OVER JAPAN

SWIKE

Kellstaught 'C.L. HAWKE' article.

1964 NATO COSMIC

I concur with Newman - we ought to explore this further in light of the herein listed 1955 Dorathy Kilgallen report about British cabinet rank officials describing a crashed UFO "not from Earth."

[See: Good p.44 re: Kilgallen 1955 Brit recovery story]

NIEMTZOW, LTC Richard, USAF flight surgeon McGuire AFB. According to Bill LaParl, LTC Niemtzwow "has worked with official French government UFO investigation and has made statements indicating that he has knowledge about 'crashed UFOs' and the official French study of abduction phenomena." [LAPARL 4-21-94]

1964 BIG SUR MISSILE FILM

Needs one more check, but is most likely a non-starter. It would appear to have been a then very secret test of an early Anti-missile defense system.

1978 FT. DIX INCIDENT

Needs a couple of more phone calls to most likely knock down.

SUBJ: PRELIMINARY UFO REVIEWAREA 51

We will be scooped when Larry King does a live TNT special from Rachel, Nev. called "The UFO Cover Up: Live From Area 51" on Oct.1. [WP 7-12-94] Concur with Newman's analysis, Popular Science and NYT Magazine, wouldn't be able to establish much on UFO connections. Congressional source said to have the highest security clearances, and to be suspicious that programs may have been run at the Area 51 facility that even he does not know about (and should by law), declined to return my phone calls.

SOVIET FILES

Various contacts state that this avenue has proved rather frustrating, if not fruitless. Apparently, most of the new documents coming out of various x-Soviet sectors are scientific rehashes of U.S. and other Western UFO literature and incidents.

I will still keep an eye on it, although it is not worthy of any further pursuit at this time. (One point which one would think should someday turn up in KGB files, is the plethora of purloined, highly-classified NATO materials lifted by U.S. Army communications sergeant Johnson in 1962-4. Sgt.

1980 BENTWATERS

I concur with both Russo and Newman - this story can not be taken any further in a fruitful, or new, manner.

SEN. GOLDWATER - The retired Arizona senator has recently spoken out on this subject. It turns out that Goldwater is actually a part of the Roswell story (see subsequent Roswell section)

MOONDUST documents during this interrum

According to documents and sources belonging to Bill LaParl, during the a 1960s FBI "leak" investigation of some classified information which made mention of UFOs, from the defense contractor Mercury Aeospace, the G-Men were told by the Air Force that there were only two locations where such information might have been stored--Wright-Paterson AFB and at the 7602nd at Ft. Belvoir, VA. [LAPARL 3-17-94; 4-5-94]

ARMY COUNTERINTELLIGENCE CORPS:

The U.S. Army has confirmed that during the late 1940s and early 1950s, they did indeed have an secret unit entitled the "IPU" or "Interplanetary Phenonenom Unit." Records no longer exist for this secret unit, however. Col. Corso claims to know about IPU. [LARPAL 3-17-94]

In addition, the Army's CounterIntelligence Corps (CIC), also was at one time involved in UFO investigations, but no records exist today. Bill LaParl believes that CIC records thereof may have been transferred to the Air Force, or may have been destroyed in 1974 or 5 as part of DoD-wide destruction of illegally maintained records on U.S. civilians (alla L.H. Oswald).

NSA CONNECTION:

Apparently no direct UFO communication intercepts, according to one partially confirmed source. Still classified to protect 'sources & methods' of intercept stations against earthly governments. [LAPARL 3-17-94; NSA-1 3-21-94]

1947 ROSWELL INCIDENT

The ultimate mystery story, set in the moody, black & white atmosphere of 1947 - postwar America. It was the dawn of the atomic age, the 'military-industrial complex,' and the ensuing cold-War. There was only one Atomic power in the entire world at the time, and only one atomic bomber base - Roswell Army Air Force Base, N.M.

While this tale has been told and retold in three books and an upcoming SHOWTIME cable docudrama, it has yet to be either well told, or critically examined. Over 60 primary and secondary witnesses listed herein, not to mention a dozen, unquestioned, previously classified government documents are hard to ignore or explain away. From 4-star generals, Colonels, majors and NCOs, to leading scientists (~~other~~^{as} their surviving family members), lack of witness^{es} has not been the problem with the telling of this story. Initial confusion amongst the various witnesses that have been dug up over the recent years.

Story unknown since 1947, until 1978, when UFO researcher Staton Friedman was giving a lecture at LSU in Baton Rouge. Later, during a radio interview, it was suggested that Friedman contact local former Air Force colonel named Jesse Marcel. Marcel came forward. Did not apparently take it too seriously until fellow UFO writer William Moore checked the library and discovered the famous July 8th, 1947, "RAAF Captures Flying Saucer On Ranch in Roswell Region," headline story in the Roswell Daily Record. It named Roswell's intelligence officer, "Maj. J.A. Marcel," as having led a team that "recovered the disk..." [RDR 7-8-47]

Numerous new witnesses, now seem to cross corroborate in rather specific detail. Two new analytical points seem to clear up all the confusion. One, there were two separate and distinct crash sites -- the Brazel ranch where the foil-like debris and 'I'-beam were recovered, and a site much closer to the actual town of Roswell (just north) where much more debris and actual "wreckage," appears to have been recovered, along with the alleged extraterrestrial bodies.

Two, the Army-Air Force July 8th press release was issued almost FOUR days after the crash, which seems to have occurred just after 11 pm on the evening of JULY 4TH. This press release, and the subsequent embarrassment of Major Marcel when his special B-29 flight stopped at 3th Air Force Headquarters at Carswell AAF in Texas, would appear in hindsight to have been a carefully orchestrated, slight-of-hand disinformation operation.

8 JULY 1947 Col. Blanchard suddenly goes on "leave."

PRIMARY WITNESSES

BRAZEL, Mac - DECEASED, but was interviewed by 'Unsolved Mysteries' on video. "Yeah, only they weren't green." No bodies at the BRAZEL debris field. Randall and Schmidt postulate that BRAZEL was informed about the bodies while being held incommunicado to help secure his silence.

BRAZEL, Shirley
BRAZEL, William

CAVITT, Sheridan - denies all knowledge. Just had a visit from a Col. in the pentagon about this, took documents and copied them.

EASLEY, Edwin Major Provost Marshall in charge of MPs. Couldn't talk about it because he promised the President. On death bed he said "oh, the creatures." Witnessed by his two daughters, (Nancy Strickland, Dallas attorney), GRANDdaughter, and Doctor Harold Graneck, who stated he was medically lucid at the time.

HAUT, Walter - was the base Public Affairs officer. He states that he was called by the base commander, Col. BLANCHARD, who told him "that we had recovered a flying saucer and parts thereof." HAUT wrote out what BLANCHARD told him, got it approved, then went into town and issued the soon-to-be infamous press release to two radio stations and the local newspaper. Another officer was later told to go back and retrieve all copies of the press release, which was done. HAUT today runs the non-profit Roswell UFO museum.

HENDERSON, 'Pappy' on tape Dr. John Kromschoeder dentist friend about the bodies in 77-78. Sappho, pappy showed her tabloid, its all true, I saw the craft, I saw the bodies. One daughter and other bill Ned. family members and friends in Las Vegas. Told Vera McCarthy WWII crew told in 1984. Blanchard favorite trouble shooter. Flew numerous highly classified missions. [HENDERSON's wife & close friend are still alive and on video.]

KAUFMANN, Frank - Not credible.

MARCEL, Jesse Sr. Never saw any bodies. believed he was snookered. Did the analysis for the Air Force and President Truman on the Soviet's first nuclear test in 1949. The material was clearly "unusual enough" to warrant his stopping at home to show what he must have thought was historically significant material to his wife and 11 year old son.

MARCEL, Jesse Jr.
MARCEL, Viaud

RICKETT, Lewis - was the CIC's [Army CounterIntelligence Corp] NCIC [Noncommissioned officer in charge] under Cavitt. deceased on video. Wife can corroborate on camera. RICKETT accompanied CAVIT. "There were MPs everywhere," when he arrived. RICKETT described the debris as "nothing jagged, nothing cut - it was super hard and super light." Some of the debris was placed in a "weapons carrier type truck." [note: not a military ambulance.] RICKETT also stated cryptically that "I knew the pilot."

PICKETT stated that he later asked his boss, Joe WIRTH, Chief of the CIC at Roswell, what happened to "all that metal" they had so diligently recovered? "I wish you hadn't asked me that," WIRTH reportedly stated. "They sent it to the lab. They still couldn't cut it."

site just north of town.

RICKETT knew KAUFMANN and his nickname. Said that was there at the crash site. Cavitt called after forty years about Roswell. "We both know what happened" - "maybe someday."

RAGSDALE, NOT CREDIBLE

SELF, Naomi - nurse who described the alien bodies to mortician Glen Dennis.

WILCOX, Sheriff George A. -

OTHER WRECKAGE MATERIALS/SPECIAL FLIGHTS WITNESSES:

Equally confusing. More than one flight. (Must have been a hell of a large target balloon.) Materials are more subjective, more open to interpretation.

SHIRKEY, Robert - was present in the base operations office when Col. Blanchard walked in and asked if the plane was ready. The special B-29 to be flown to the laboratories at Wright-Patterson AAF was sitting just outside the operations office. When Shirkey responded in the affirmative, Col. Blanchard ordered his men to bring in "the parts of a flying saucer," and load it onto the plane. As the materials were carried in, Shirkey, who was standing in a narrow doorway with Col. Blanchard, asked the Colonel if he, Blanchard, could turn sideways so that Shirkey could also see the materials. "I got to see some of the materials," recalls Shirkey. "I saw that piece of 'I' beam with the markings. The other material I saw [very briefly] was similar to brushed stainless steel, but somewhat like aluminum foil in that one side was reflective." These materials were apparently placed aboard the B-29 in the bomb bay section.

PORTER, Robert - Flight engineer on the "original" July 8th flight with Major Marcel to Wright-Pat AAF via Carswell AAFB. According to Porter, he was later told they had carried parts of a "flying saucer" by Captain Pappy Henderson, who piloted at least one later "saucer parts" flight. Porter states that also on the July 8th flight were a Col. JENNINGS (Blanchard's deputy, who later disappeared MIA over the Mediterranean), a Col. BARANTHAL (who has not been located) a Major WONDERLICK (also not located) and Major MARCEL.

Employing a ground vehicle, Porter apparently delivered some of the materials to the forward crew compartment where the previously listed officers were lodged. These materials were wrapped in brown paper and tape. One piece was about 2 & 1/2 feet across and was triangular in shape. "The rest was in shoe boxes. They were very light - flat like they were empty." (Rand & Schmidt point out that these materials seem to match the actual balloon parts, complete with brown wrapping paper and shoe boxes, exhibited in the photograph taken in Gen. Ramey's 8th Air Force office at Carswell. They state that additional materials were also stored in the B-29's bomb bay where Porter did not see.)

Porter and the above listed officers flew a B-29 'Strato-Fortress' which was logged to fly to Wright-Patterson AAF in Ohio with a refueling stop at Carswell AAF. Most interesting, according to Porter, after a red-faced Maj. Marcel delivered his "space" debris, and it was announced to the whole world that it was merely debris from target balloon, this flight continued via a B-25 bomber onto the laboratories at WRIGHT-PAT AAF!!! (Porter is willing to do an interview, also on video)

SLUSHER, Robert - Slusher was the bombardier of a B-29 flight crew that flew "classified" cargo on a special flight from Roswell to Carswell on July 9th, the day after the Balloon press conference. Slusher states that one of the gunners (he can't remember who) told him during the flight what they were saying "up front," in the cockpit: "That we had made history." The flight began just off the operations building, then taxied over to a hanger, where a large CRATE was loaded into the bomb bay at "Bomb Pit #1." He said there were "armed M.P.s on board," who were still there while he helped unload the crate. "It was a low level flight," which Slusher says was also unusual.

Slusher remembers that the person who had apparently stated that "we had made history" was Major MARTUCCI. Slusher recalls that their flight was met by a party of individuals, and that Martucci greeted an old classmate on tarmac at Carswell AFB. This former classmate was MORTICIAN. Martucci lives in Texas and has declined so far to discuss this July 9th "historic" flight. (Slusher believes that Major Marcel joined their return flight back to Roswell - so Marcel spent the night at Carswell while his original flight continued onto Wright Field.) [Slusher is willing to do interview, also on video]

SMITH, Robert - was a flight loader who helped load debris onto 3 separate C-54 transport planes for flights that continued up until July 10th. This flights were apparently destined for Kirtland AFB and the Los Alamos Research Laboratory. Smith called in after an airing of an 'Unsolved Mysteries' episode on Roswell. Smith says the debris was housed in the "East side hanger," and that they measured the aircraft and crated up "the stuff" accordingly. The crates are stenciled "TOP SECRET." Smith said that the material, when crumpled up, would instantly spring to to its original shape.

Smith states that he had "distant cousin" who was with the U.S. Secret Service in Washington in 1947. During a family reunion in 1972, Smith talked with this cousin for the first time about the 1947 incident at Roswell. Smith's cousin (who is still believed to be alive, but not yet located), told Smith that he had "come [to Roswell] as representative of President Truman. He told me that he saw me [at Roswell], but that he didn't want to identify himself to me at the time." When Smith asked his cousin about "flying saucer parts" in 1972, his cousin "just grinned." [Smith is willing to do interview, also on video]

WIRTH, John (Joe?) - was chief of the CIC unit at Roswell in 1947. CIC-NOO Lewis Rickett, who was involved in the early recovery efforts, stated that he later asked his boss, WIRTH, what happened to "all that metal" they had so diligently recovered? "I wish you hadn't asked me that," WIRTH reportedly stated. "They sent it to the lab. They still couldn't cut it." WIRTH, if still alive, has not been located.

BLANCHARD, Anne - widow of Gen. Blanchard, she told Stanton Friedman in 1979 that her husband knew what he had sent to Carswell was NOT a balloon. "He knew it was nothing made by us," she told Friedman. "At first he thought it might be Russian because of the STRANGE SYMBOLS on it. Later on, he realized it wasn't Russian either." (MOORE p.42)

BODY WITNESSES

Most serious and unambiguous. Not hardly as subject to selective interpretation as the recovered materials witnesses.

BROWN, Sgt. Melvin - BEAN Beverly -- father on death bed. [willing to be interviewed, also on video]

BUSH, Mary - George H. Bush, his nephew, his other sister corroborate that their sister who was the secretary Hospital administrator, documents check. came home incredibly adgitated after she had stepped in to a room by accident she was ordered out, saw what she said "was not a human body." ~~seen one of the bodies.~~ she was never the same after the incident. frightened would get in trouble. told her family this at the time it was in the newspapers. Committed suicide 3 years ago. despondent over a divorce. x-husband still alive. [Check RANDLE/SCHMITT p.18]

DENNIS, Glen city directory listed him as mortician

DURAN, LTC Robert Lovejoy --white sands. dying of sciroscis of the lead, when drunk, he would talk about seeing bodies at Roswell. when he was brought in. Daughter & sons in Colorado

HOLDEN - "I was there I saw everything." site was North of Roswell. C. Boltren Schultz - Holden told him about the craft and the bodies in July 1947 heard the radio broadcast., his two daughters been told story about crashed flying saucers since they were children. saw the military cordren near Roswell.

MARTUCCI, Major - Ancy about talking about Roswell. Reportedly made the statement during one crucial recovery flight: "We're making history." Martucci met old classmate on the tarmac at Carswell AFB who was a MORTICIAN.

RANDALL, Burid daughter of MSGT Terrance Randall, who 35 years ago told her. died 20 years ago of radation sickness, roswell to white sands exposed to raw plutonium. He mentioned that the bodies "humunoid, she asked what that ment, they looked like humans". A lot of guys took to heavy drink because of what the saw.
