

that she was in contact with spec persons. Mrs. Swan's method of contact is to throw a question and by completely relying with a pencil in her hand, some unknown form controls the hand and writes the answer. It was also pointed out that the Canadian government had conducted an extensive investigation of Mrs. Swan's claims. A complete file of this case is in the office of Captain Frankel, ONI. At this point Mr. Lourdahl turned the discussion over to Commander J.M. Jensen.

D. Com. Jensen pointed out that during the latter part of June, he and another Naval Officer had flown up to Maine and visited Mrs. Swan for the purpose of witnessing a contact and to interview the lady. Mrs. Swan, after the interview and contact, asked Comdr. Jensen why he didn't make a contact himself. The officers then tried, but was unsuccessful.

E. After his return to Wash. Comdr.
 Jensen was discussing the case with Mr. Lourdahl and Lt. Comdr. Newham
