

However, he did suggest that specific questions be prepared and put to the Senior of the Air Force plans to pursue the case further. Arrangement were also made for Larsen to attempt a contact for Frankel & Landahl on 11 July 1959. Maj. Friend requested that the AFK be informed of the outcome.

III. Impressions

A. Capt. Frankel - Observed a very clear thinking man - only his report for Larsen stimulates his interest in the case.

B. Cdr. Larsen: Appears to be a very steady person, has (or had) a responsible position in ONI [guard, brazier etc.] This officer appeared very embarrassed during the initial part of the discussion concerning his experience and exhibited some reluctance. However, he warmed to the task once
