

"Pinning Tree Club" so in Denver I resumed my golf - and a man named Morris had been Secretary of the Colo Golf association for 30 years - and on the board of Directors of the U.S. Golf Assoc. 20 years - I played golf with him - and in time I convinced him that the whole golf picture should be reorganized in Colo. and that I could do it.
I had been a 3 time golf champ in Virginia and a 2 time one in Washington - so they elected me Pres. of the Colo. Golf Assoc. and Pres. of Denver Dist Assoc. - my first job was to throw the state championships open to all amateurs in U.S.A. and charge $10 entry fee Morris said "if you wont have a dozen entries we have trouble every year, so few enter - I said Watch me! I had 376 paid entries - ^{not 300} and as Colo. is a ^{small} resort
