

"Mr N. I have a man who was with Air-research during war, and he perfected for them a machine to detect submarines, and saved our navy by detecting German subs from the air. He is still on pay from Gov and has adapted this equipment for oil research. Would you let me get this man here, as I have a deal to finance his work. He is in Okla. but will be back in 2 weeks. I said. "The oil industry needs a man like you say this man is". 2 weeks later my Secretary came in my office and said. "There is a Mr Flader on the phone". I said "That's the man who down near Tulsa killed George put him on", Flader said my man
