

heavy, but this 230 lb old German took and bursted Pat there all day. I sat in lead seat and watched his needles jump left and right. In P.M. I noted that he would close a switch for soon and on an 8450 foot well at Lakeview, he stopped his switch at 8400. I said "Do do that again I want the exact depth," so he started again and when he got to 8400 he stopped and said now do you want it in inches? I said "No" just exact feet I want to know the depth to top of pay if in drilling a well cat. That night I said to Don + Marshall - This German is cheating when he gets tired. They agree
