of mine Darwin Coxt - a fine lawyer went to Judge Chambers one day in some matter, and said "what's the matter Judge". He said "I'm trying to figure out what to do about Newton in this case. I never dreamed the jury would find Newton guilty. Darwin said why don't you throw it out of court.
He replied "I'm making it a civil case. So two days later (so Coxt reported to me) he ordered us through Chambers and there he said. This is the record ("If the defendants in this case are not to be sentenced they should be willing to pay back the money they got." and he called Mr R. B. and said to him "Are you willing to pay." "Yes" said R. B. are you willing to pay the States
