

cast Mr De B. "Yes he said so they took the labor bills that Flader paid out on the well he drilled, the notes ^{$25,000} he had given to Flader. This all totaled about $84,000. (Not $250,000 as you report in your letter) The atty for De B and the Judge finally agreed that De B. was to pay 15% of his income and pay 1/2 of any money for property he sold in the next 5 years. Then he turned to me and said "how about you Mr Newlan" I stood up and said Judge I never at any time received a penny from this man and I refuse to pay a dime." He said, well that's that and then he said Lets go in to court. and he read his verdict. you two dependents are to have 5 years to pay to Flader the amount claimed by Flader. Pay monthly

This is a newspaper lie printed long after case