

The man, this opponent a Republican who had never held an office, a friend of mine, a golfer met me in the street. I said "Bill I'm going to donate to your fund for I happen to know you will be our next mayor" He said: "What are you crazy. You know I don't have a ghost of a chance. I know your <sup>late</sup> Keating's quite for the rotten thing he did to you." Bill won by 200 votes, K. demanded a recount. Bill won that by 800 votes and Keating has been a forgotten man!
He missed a turn on the road (they said) and was almost killed. I never told Bill Keating that my space brothers told me he would be Denver's mayor, two (2) terms. I have now told you the story of this infamous case - It is revolting and impossible to believe it could
