was wrong. About 30 days later they called me and said they had fired him and that I was right. So it goes. I make mistakes they still put erasure rubbers on pencils but I don't lie -

My father told me when I left his Ins. Co. The Amicable Life at Maco Tex (He owned the special charter that gave him permanent control of the company) That's a great story, he said. Go ahead son, but from here out you'll be called a Brook and a base thief - when the man he had made Pres. (a rifle old bastard a double factor that Jew bastard who served 4 terms at Pres. and sold U.S. down the river; My father resigned, moved to Dallas. all of his brothers and sisters 8 of them died 80 to 90 years on this planet. He died with a broken heart at 68. He had been that kind of
