Dear Cirant

Many thanks for your portrait request.

I would like to begin by telling you a little about the portraits that 'I' draw. They are done entirely by Spirit, and I usually know little, if indeed anything, about who they portray.

In the case of a person who has passed away due to illness or of old age, they will tend to present themselves as they looked when younger, or at a happier time in their lives. Very often, there is a photo that will match, sometimes mirror, the sketch. However, please don't look at the picture as if it were a photograph- rather they are likenesses, sketches completed often in a matter of minutes.

In terms of who comes through to be drawn, this can depend on a wide variety of factors, just bear in mind that characters don't essentially change when we go back to Spirit. If grumpy great uncle Greg didn't like having his picture taken during his lifetime, it's a pretty safe bet that this is still the case! In these instances, it's not uncommon for a living loved one to be depicted instead. On one or two occasions, I've even sent through a picture of the person who has written to me requesting a Portrait!

Lastly, I have been known to send out a likeness of somebody yet to be encountered, but who will play a significant role in your life in the future. The one thing that I can be sure of is that the portraits do go to the right place, and while the vast majority are recognised instantly, those that are not will be validated sooner or later.

A large part of my wonderful gift involves having the faith to know each portrait is brought by Spirit for a reason and will find its way home. I hope that this will always bring comfort and reassurance to the recipient. Giving tangible proof that our loved ones live on.

If you have a photograph similar to the sketch I've sent, I would be really grateful if you could email me, post on my Facebook page, or call me on 07918028888.

Warm regards,

Sandy.
