#66

Administrative screw up - no comm with room, coldroom interrupted Session start @ 0835 hours. tape on aerial view.

mntn range to NE

low flat area in middle by circular shape dead center close up of something shaped like bamboo shoots 2 ft high

"Spaks ??" (spikes?) (bamboo shape) circular shape very large

Describe directly below you

Small complex of shapes - electronic (thinks) some kind of remote site - not much man-made around it.

tight complex of buildings/trailers or something with antennas cyl shape on one of them vertical cylinder shape

= where position?

about 200 ft up to SE

= there on ground to exact tgt coord; describe metal structural non-terrestrial pipe shapes bright glow

fire, flame = describe launch of a rocket or something on ground
saw/felt slight heat

- searched this area very carefully - does not see any activity that attracts attention

= 29 May 81 @ 1200 target time inside some kind of structure, have to get some altitude sensing energy? heat - light now getting energy decline like things being shot down, finished, complete.

noises subsiding flow & values reducing to a trickle or a drip reduced responsibility less tension - something at least temporarily over with

 Have him determine the source of the heat, light and noise site highly technical didn't see a lot of people, some people.

→ just had darkness, then startled by a launch of some kind - then

1. IT TOOK A YEAR^(?) TO CONVINCED S. WE NEEDED TO LEAVE OTHER BUILDING.
