

Feedback on 9020 (JT4-0012-90), 201245 EDT Apr 90

079- 200900EDT: 25%

Vessel is a very small open vessel, no name identified.

The aircraft is a small, lightweight aircraft.

c/s: STEPHEN, SEPHEN.

Airdrop at 25N 80W (about 25 miles ESE of Key Largo), which will happen sometime between the next three hours to three days. Names or C/S related to this operations: KLIGO LIGHT/KILIGHT

011- 201030EDT: 10%

Vessel is a small white pleasure craft, 30 feet, small superstructure forward, cabin below deck. No name or identity known.

Aircraft involved is small light twin engine, resembling a U21.

Activity at the drop site is a low pass and kick out the door.

Offload point: somewhere in the Bahamas or coast of Florida.

003- 201113EDT: 15%

Vessel is 50 Ft. long, 2 decks, superstructure and pilot house forward, with booms and outriggers midship. Large drum hoist near the stern. Hull is dark and upper portion is light. Radar antenna on the superstructure.

Aircraft reminds of C12 or U21.

Independent activity:

Activity of importance currently taking place at 19/30N 78/10W (NW of Jamaica, S of Carnaguay, Cuba). This activity should end at dusk today, it has been ongoing for approx. one day.

SECURE FAX

Approved For Release 2000/08/08 : CIA-RDP96-00789R000900240010-6

DTG: 20 1325 APR 90

From: HQDA/ODCSINT STAFF

POLICY & OPERATIONS DIRECTORATE

IMAGERY DIVISION (DAMI-POI)

PHONEFAX AV 225-8622 SG11

PASS TO: [REDACTED] EYES ONLY!

COMMENTS: SAP 2 PAGES TOTAL

WASHINGTON D.C.

