SUMMARY OF INFORMATION

During this session, I could see the two men talking in an office. The man who walked into the office was much younger than the man who wore the navy blue pin strip suit. This man had dark brown hair and he wore casual clothes. He was carrying maps under his arm. The reason that the younger man came to this office was to tell the older man that he just accomplished his mission. The older man was responsible for paying the younger man. The younger man pointed to a location on one of his maps on where he was. There were not any other people here.

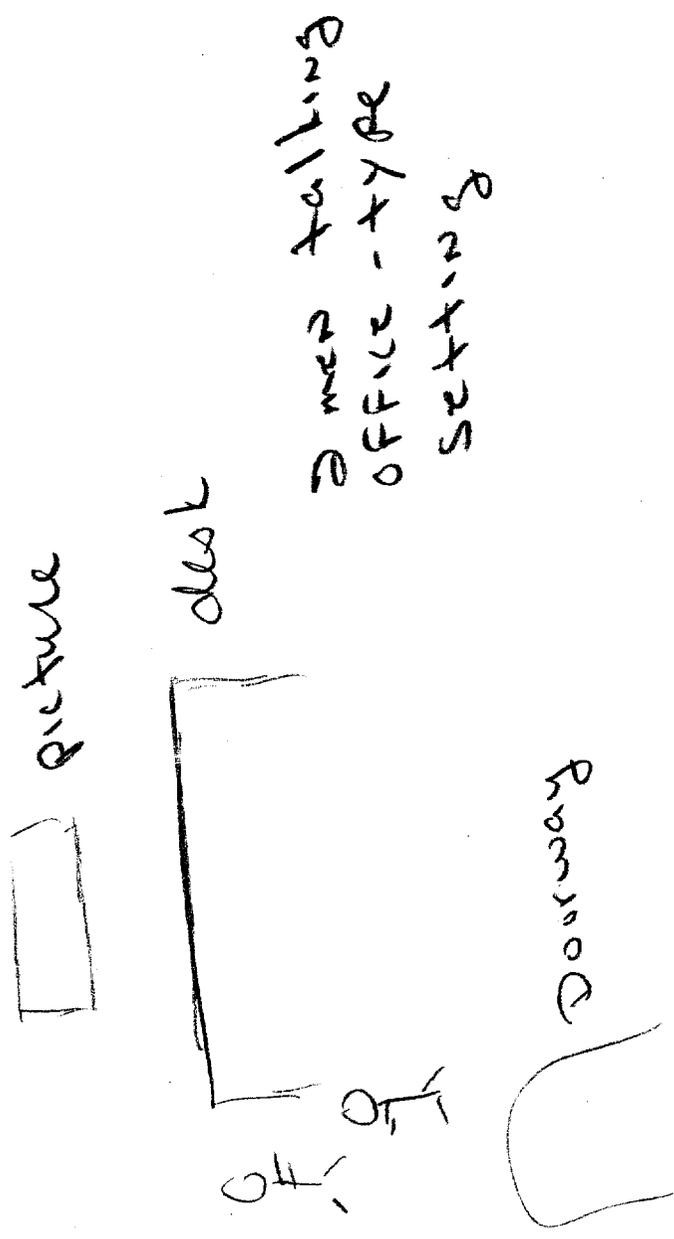

I then was in another location. I could see a rather large vessel sitting on the water. There were several smaller vessels sitting on the water around it. The smaller vessels were here in support of the larger vessel. I then went inside the large vessel. I could see men and women entering and exiting a large round doorway. It looked as though there was some type of social event going on.
