SUMMARY OF INFORMATION

The Target is an event. When accessing the event for the second time I perceived that the event was about to occur in a well known location which had modern architecture, lots of glass and cut stone. There was an elevator and standing in front of the elevator were men who were dressed in large coats. They were in a group, standing in together waiting for the elevator. Once on the elevator they went down. I watched them walking along a hall which was well lighted, but very cold and plain. One of the men stopped and pointed to a door on the left. The men positioned themselves and then entered the room shooting.

The event appears to be related to an assassination. These men are carrying out a preplanned killing. They are motivated monetarily but their main driving force is religious fanaticism.

There is a group of men who know of the presence of these others. They are responsible for stopping the others in any way that they can. I watched them running along an elevated walkway and down stairs to try and interdict the other men. They don't make it in time to stop the event. The perceived casualties related to the event run about three or four dead and 12 to 15 injured.

The men sent to do the killing do not care what happens to them they only want to complete the mission. Inside the brief cases that these men are carrying are smooth black objects that I perceived to be weapons -- the same weapons used to conduct the event.
