1. (S/NF/SK) MISSION: To describe and locate an ancient walled city/fortress in an arid region. W. of Bam, Iran.
2. (S/NF/SK) VIEWER TASKING: Encrypted coordinates 325672/132598 only.
3. (S/NF/SK) COMMENTS:
  - a. Inclemencies: None reported.
  - b. 095 started this site on 1 JUN 89, and received repeated miss breaks, with only 1 impression: that of a structure. Because the 1 impression was valid, I decided to call a "break" (page 3) until today, when we resumed, beginning with the one impression, instead of calling the session and beginning all over again. Today, 095 picked up from the 1 impression, continued in Stage 1, and gained excellent access to the site.
  - c. Summary of Information enclosed.

SUMMARY OF INFORMATION

Note: Search was conducted after monitor informed viewer that she had good site contact. This occurred early in stage 4. The search was conducted on the large world map (small CRV room) using the hot finger method.

The target is a airy, hard, narrow, tall structure in an open flat area. Associated with the entire site are the S-2's of gray, white, green, blue, black, thick air smell, rough, hard, people sounds and bird sounds. The dimensionals associated with the site are open, narrow, tall, and short. The site has many patterns associated with it, these are sketched on pages 8 and 9. There is a road near the structure. The structure has a unique dimensionality in that it portrays a feeling of size simultaneously with a feeling of delicateness/fragility.

The site is located in Turkey in the vicinity of Ankara. Other strong sensations were in Greece and the general area of the Middle East.
