FRONTLOAD:

" TODAY WE WILL BE WORKING ON A GLOBAL TARGET CLASS "A". CLASS "A" SIMPLY MEANS THAT I DO NOT KNOW THE TARGET. REMEMBER OUR DISCUSSIONS FROM LAST TIME AND BE CONSCIOUS OF THE NEED TO FIRST DESCRIBE THE GENERAL GESTALT OF THE TARGET BEFORE BEGINNING TO DESCRIBE THE SPECIFICS. AS ALWAYS DO NOT CHEAT YOURSELF ON RELAXATION. USE THE TIME TO RELAX COMPLETELY IN PREPARATION FOR THIS TASKING. RELAX YOUR LEGS, YOUR HIPS, YOUR CHEST YOUR NECK, YOUR WHOLE BODY."

SESSION RESULTS

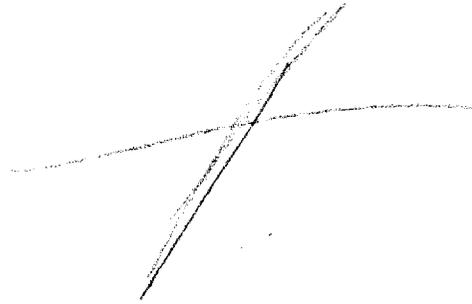

1. () The target was the British Protectorate Zone, Gibraltar on the south coast of Andalusian Spain. Known in antiquity as the Pillars of Hercules, this large natural rock formation rises from the Mediterranean Sea and "guards" the mouth of the Straits of Gibraltar. The site is signified by the large rising rock mass, crowded residential area, airport (stretching into the sea on the west side, rain water collector systems (large flat slabs and terrained rock) and the normal presence of British Naval vessels in its protected harbor.

2. () Source was unable to positively identify any of the expected major gestalts of this facility, e.g., large rock mass, surrounding water, residential areas, port facilities and the general awesome appearance of the facility. Source did describe various geometric shapes such as triangles, balls, crosses and pointed objects which may actually be located at points at the site but were not discernible as major gestalts. Source did reference an association with flying (NOTE: there is an unusual airstrip on Gibraltar). Other references to vague, shadowy men and objects also cannot be positively correlated to the target.

SESSION EVALUATION:

A handwritten scribble or signature in black ink, consisting of a series of connected, irregular lines that form a jagged, upward-sloping shape. The lines are thin and somewhat shaky, suggesting a quick or hurried drawing. The overall impression is that of a stylized signature or a specific mark.

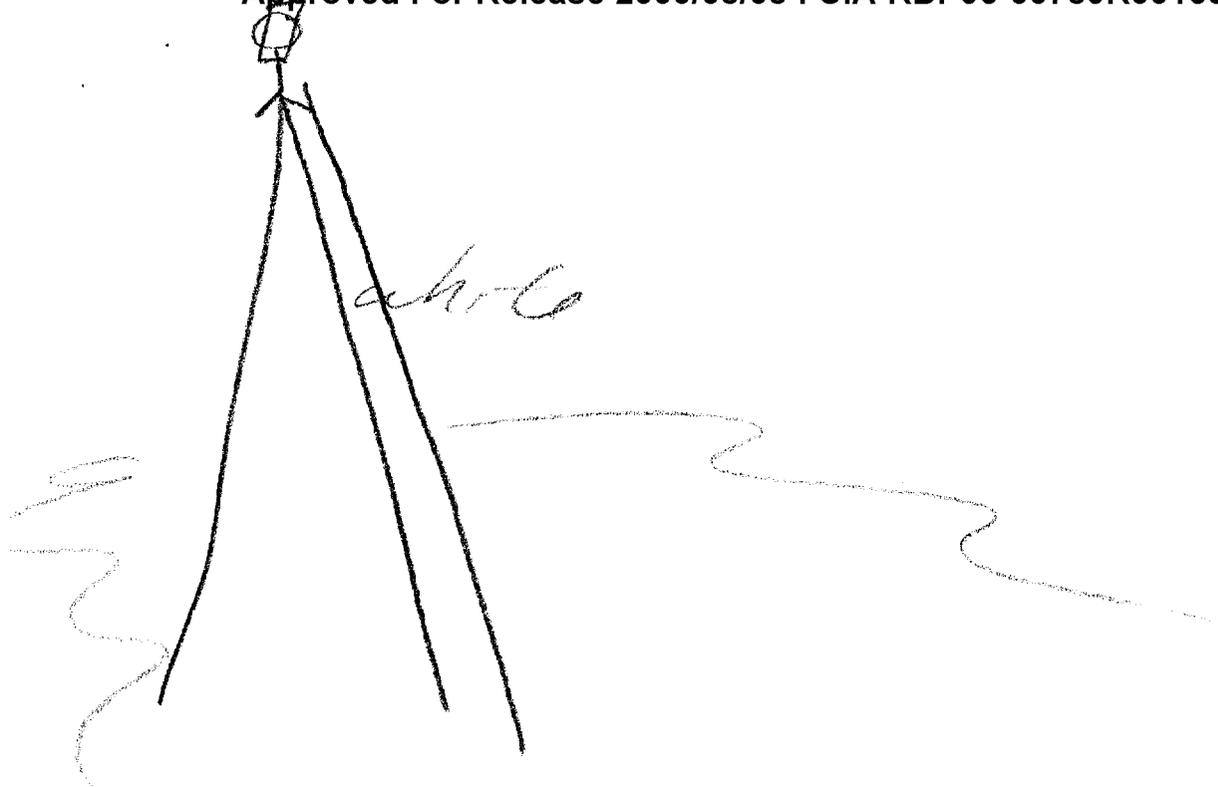

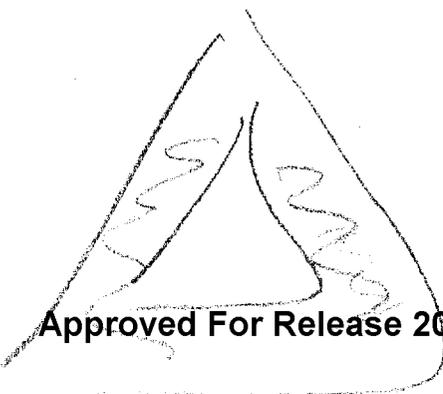

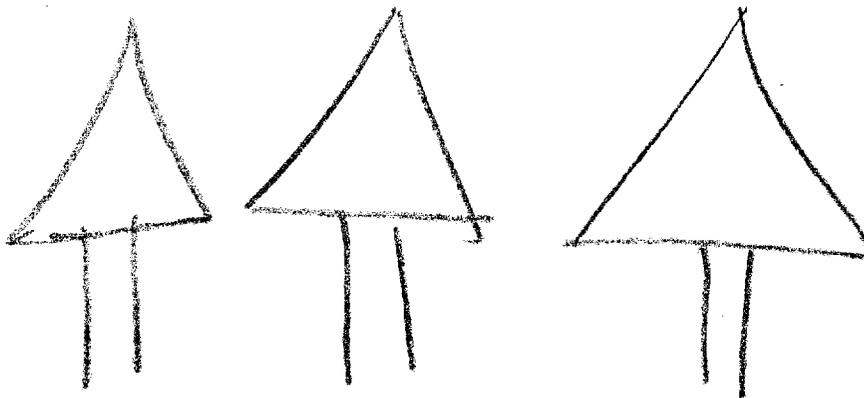

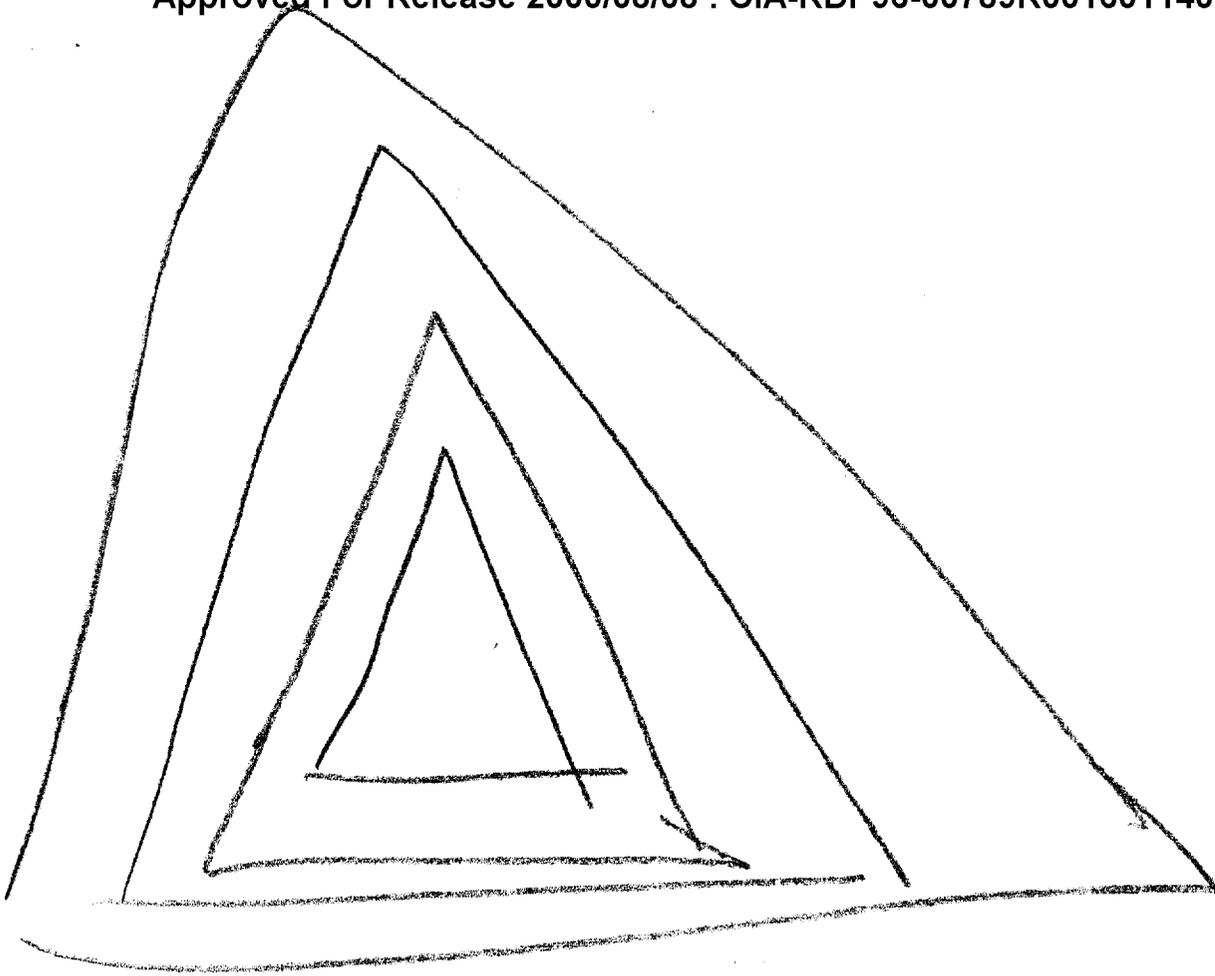

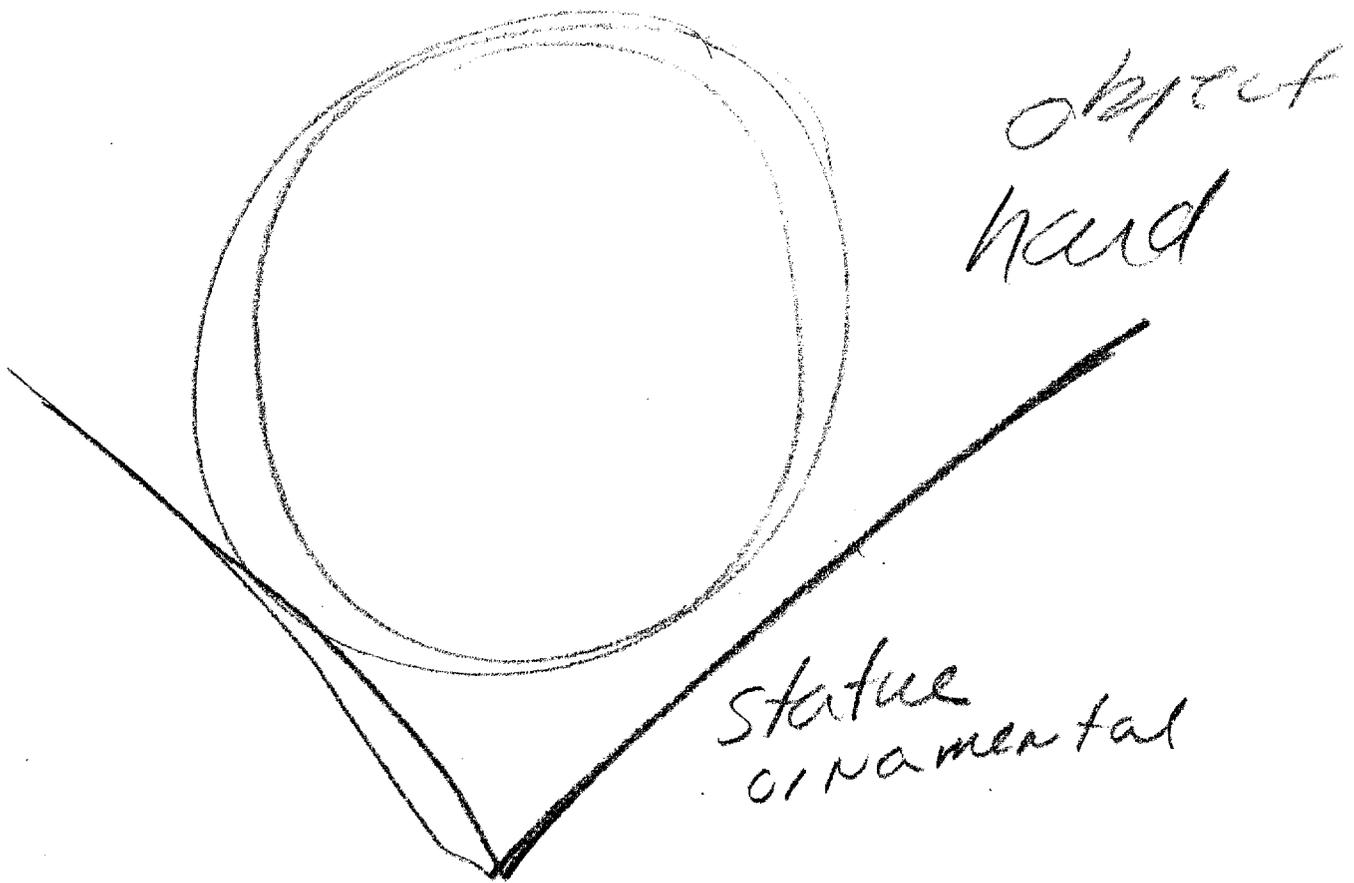

wet

water
dirty
green
body

darkness

At first, I saw a man walking in an area. He was a rather small man. He looked like a shadow. He was walking rather determined. I felt that the area he was in was dark. He was outside.

I saw many triangles within two triangles, also giving a shadowy impression.

I then saw a ball with a U under it. This object ~~se~~ was hard & it seemed to be out of place with the natural setting.

I saw a small body of water. There seemed to be ~~a~~ dirty water.

I then saw the man drinking but this was not associated with the small body of water.

I then saw a cross which was also dark. When I went back to the cross the second time, it was lighter.

I then felt that I was in another location & saw

another man slipping down a point. It was very very cold. ^I
land I felt that the land I felt was wet
