OTHER ACTIVITY:

Group of eight people

Departure by sea plane to river on 27 June 1988

Much haggling between group members and authorities governing scheduled departure of aircraft.

First attempt at departure frustrated; aircraft returned due to bad weather.

Group slept in tents mostly.

Some buildings were encountered.

A "fly-in", modern-looking fishing camp was encountered with modern buildings.

A high water tower was present.

An equally high transmitting station was observed.

Island scheduled as an overnight rest camp not used because of the presence of wild dogs; warned by neighboring indians.

Visit to an indian camp.

Caribou hide bought - one portion smoked - the other not

Availability of complete bear skin in village for ten dollars.

Project - Proves;
