

TASK ASSIGNED : 14 JAN 87
TASK DUE : 17 Sep 87
NEWSWEEK COVER : 28 Sep - 2 OCT 87

LAST SUBMISSION

17 SEP 87

PROJECT "P"

SOMEBODY STANDING ON A BALCONY
ADDRESSING A CROWD OF PEOPLE

SG1J

SRV

Ft Meade

21 September 87

SUBJECT: Results of SRV sessions for week of 14-18 September, 1987.

1. TARGET: The target was to describe the picture on the cover of the 28 September 87 issue of Newsweek Magazine.
2. RESULTS: There were recurring impressions that there will be simply a picture of a man. The man will be smiling in a way I can't figure out. It reminds me of the "What, me worry?" smile of Alfred E. Newman on Mad magazine. I have not been able to identify this man, but get the impression that he is wearing some specific kind of clothing which should identify him.
3. RVer's CRITIQUE: Who knows? From the description, I could be viewing Time magazine, instead, but it does "feel" pretty valid.

PROJECT "SG1J", 17 September 1987

A rounded, circular object with a lip on it oriented slantwise on the page, dark grey on a white and red background. A person stands beside or behind it, with one hand on or near the object, but looking elsewhere rather than at the object. He wears dark-framed glasses, is dressed in dark clothing, perhaps a suit, and seems a little stiff in his posture.

PROJECT "P"
SOURCE 079

I KEPT SEEING A MOVING VEHICLE AND I SAW A DARK HAired MAN
AND THEN I HAD THE IMPRESSION OF A GROUP OF PEOPLE. I HAD THE SENSATION OF FLYING OR MOVEMENT.