memorandum

SUBJECT: SESSION SUMMARY (C/SS)

SG1J

TO: DT-S (ATTN: [REDACTED])

1. (S-SS) Statistics:

Viewer:	018
Session date:	29 APR 88
Start time:	1004
End time:	1056
Mode of operation:	SOLO
FI:	Ribs hurt
AV:	Volcano

2. (S-SS) Cueing:
  - a. View and describe the target event.
  - b. Sketch the event and nearby gestalts from overhead.

3. (S-SS) Results:
  - a. The site seems to be a round place of high land. This high land rises gradually then drops suddenly down to a very (AI: ugly) flat spot (see Fig. 1). The high land is topped by a very white cloud (AOI: like a head of cauliflower). The cloud is coming from a circular place in the high land. Near the high land is a road which leads down to a city (see Fig 2).
  - b. Impressions of the city included:
    - 1) "Japanese" feel which broke out to:
      - a) very close living conditions
      - b) "rural" feeling for so dense a population
      - c) low wooden (almost stick) houses with thick roofs sandwiched between larger stone buildings (no zoning) (see Fig. 3).

AOL(S)

- d) all people are light-skinned and wearing strange (to me) dress.
  - e) no street lights: natural light only
  - f) "Godzilla attacking Tokyo" type of panic (people running around, yelling/ people trapped under collapsing buildings/ danger from above / etc.) ALL SOUNDS WERE MUFFLED.
- 2) There seemed to be a haziness or cloudiness, which was accompanied by a "skin-crawling" feel.
- 3) Everything seemed to be covered by white/grey "stuff" (AOL: like snow) which had a dry, heavy, powdery, "gritty" feel to it. It felt like walking on piles of powder (dry and much finer than sand) under bare feet.
- c. I began to doubt the authenticity of the impressions when I realized that I had probably slipped into an AOL drive of "The last days of Pompey". Session ended.
