PROJECT SUN STREAK (U)

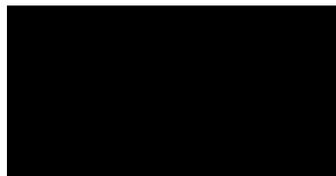

WARNING NOTICE: INTELLIGENCE SOURCES AND METHODS INVOLVED

Session Procedures Report (S/NF/SK)

PROJECT NUMBER: 8713	SESSION NUMBER: 4
DATE OF SESSION: 28 OCT 87	TARGET COUNTRY:
REFERENCE:	MISSION STATUS:
TECHNIQUE UTILIZED: CRV	SOURCE IDENTIFIER: 003

1. (S/NF/SK) Monitor Tasking: Describe the nature and extent of activities associated with the target coordinates.
2. (S/NF/SK) Source Tasking: The entire session, beginning in Stage 4, was spent exploring the (monitor-introduced) cue "mission".
3. (S/NF/SK) Summary: 003's summary is attached; monitor and viewer agree that it is probably saturated with AOL. At any rate, this session was eclipsed by session #3 and, therefore, supplies little or no additional, substantive data.
4. (S/NF/SK) Comments: 003 entered the viewing room in a state of exhaustion; the monitor simply allowed 003 to continue the "story line" begun in session #3, i.e., the WW II commando movie scenario, completely aware of the high probability of AOL drive and knowing that to attempt anything more rigorous would only exhaust the viewer further. Simply put, the monitor wrote this session off from the beginning, recognizing that 003 was too tired to do a good job.

Summary

One person involved with the site is dark complected, confident, official, military, in a dark blue, not especially decorative uniform, trained, highly skilled, and not American. He is inside a large, primarily metallic structure/object that is round with a ladder. There is an impression he's going somewhere with other people. There is a sense of excitement and anticipation. This person seems to be a sort of "crisis junkie"--he lives for excitement or danger. These people seem to be going from one place where they belong to another place where they don't, but where they have something they're supposed to do. If the people in the place where they are going knew they were coming, they wouldn't let them in at all. There is a sense of traveling from a warm place with a north-facing, sandy, undeveloped third-world sense to a cold, dark place with damp rocks, vegetation and little population across a large body of water in a NNE direction. When these people arrive they seem to go on foot to a vacant house among trees next to a road not far from a coast line where they await the arrival of someone and/or something which they need to continue their assignment. There is a sense of hiding or disguising themselves. This place is, however, only a temporary location--a sort of "safe house" or base camp. From here they proceed a considerable distance to a place that is more southerly, a bit warmer and seemingly very urban and city-like (AOL of Chicago). Extensive time may be required to accomplish this task (at least days, maybe weeks). What they have to do has some connection with a person or persons already present in the urban setting trying to live here unobtrusively who will know what the operative group is up to when they recognize they are present. The group may be involved in extricating or extracting someone here to take them back with them to where the group originated. Impression of a person meeting with other people and talking to them about various things. Sense of controversy involved; some things seem not for "public consumption"; person seems to have a certain amount of recognition or notoriety among certain circles. Subjects of interest may include organizations, details, facts, circumstances, and conditions. Heavy AOL of Soviet defector being debriefed, but fairly well-known to community at large and some public knowledge of him as well.

Impression that original object connected with operative group was a submarine. Impression it starts from someplace warm and distant with an Eastern hemisphere feel to the south and east of where it ends up, somewhere north and west in the Western hemisphere. Impression that this "submarine" was built/assembled inside a larger structure originally which was located in a cold, icy region (AOL of Kola peninsula), but since has moved out and gone on it's way to where it now is. Its circumstances of construction seem to have little relevance to current activities.

54 1/2 At end point they are meaning something different than they are now - non-obtrusive. Some time involved in accomplishing task. Seems to involve wealthy persona persons in the urban setting who have been there for awhile + who will know what these guys are up to. This group seems to be involved in extricating or extracting one or more of these individuals back the way they originally came.
