— There are three active and three inactive strips. The active strips are distinguishable by the presence of some form of ~~bulky~~ ^{bulky} ~~pony~~ ^{pony}

— The most used strip is L shaped. w/ main runways of N and East; one predominant runway is at the right angle base - ~~by~~ ~~by~~ On inactive strip about 500 yds west ~~is~~ ~~is~~ present.
 Inactive shrub is present; a thin strip located ~~at~~ ~~at~~ 700 yds west is shaped like an E-1151 - WEST runway with a perpendicular strip going down.

Below that strip is the most active, legal strip in the form of a cross; east of the cross is an inactive Y strip and east of that is an active legal strip running NNE to SSW

- Aircraft involved in illegal airdrops are ~~not~~ normally parked in the active leg. - use both strips - ~~aircraft~~ take offs on mashed rubber aircraft take off simultaneously, one from the legitimate strip, one from the illegal.
