SUMMARY OF INFORMATION:

There is a tall, dark; narrow structure that is attached to a rectangular structure, (like a barn). There is a circular structure, and a green light that is moving around in a circle. Inside the first structure it is very bright. There are colors of blue, yellow and green. There are people and animals inside this structure. I could see one male person bending over something that looked like a cage or a fence. There are little animals, like chickens, and bigger animals also. It made me think of animals on a farm or in a zoo. There are people inside that are moving and looking around. This structure is here to promote "_____", something, like freedom or independence.

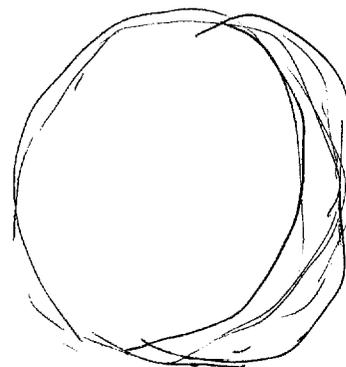

Going back in time, I saw an older man with a bald head. There was also a different structure that was tall and pointed at the end. I perceived an uneasy feeling and very thick smoke. I felt as if I were choking from the smoke. It made me think of war, or a battlefield.
