SUMMARY OF INFORMATION:

     It is dark, black and I can't see anything. There are little specks of light. There is something square with a hole in the middle. It is calm and peaceful here. I feel like I'm looking up at a big, dark, and black sky. I'm standing on something solid, dirt; it is dusty here. I feel like I'm in space and looking at a planet, like Mars.
     Going back in time, I can see two figures, could be astronauts. They are bouncing around and wearing something shiny and rounded over their heads. They are "planting a hole in the ground". It is very cold here. There is something smooth, metallic, hard, and solid. There is a triangle shape here. The individual associated with the site is a man with white hair. He makes me think of Einstein. Phonetics that surfaced were two words,
"CHA_____", "CR_____"

PEARL OF POLYNESIA, craggy Bora Bora rises within a barrier of coral and lashing surf that thwarted Cook's only attempt to harbor here. Shattering the little island's isolation, an airstrip on the islet at lower right now regularly attracts visitors from neighboring Tahiti.
