IV.

IMPRESSION OF A WOMAN
DRESSED IN A ROYAL BLUE
SILK GOWN

Very official feeling... regal
.... like a queen or something

Seems to be greeting or addressing some sort of gathering. She appears to be above the group of people, as if she were on a stage, a balcony, or something of that nature.

V.

Man with long narrow face,
older, distinguished looking.
Official air about him. Wearing very expensive dark blue suit with a wide maroon/red tie.

Feel that he is somehow tied into the above impression of the woman

He is looking around acknowledging the presence of other people around him.
