

679

March 20

I sensed a room with a big table and there were two people talking, meeting.

One was a female standing and the other was a male sitting.

The room was rather empty except for the table and at times it seemed that the female was looking down at paper or else pointing at something which reminded me of a green blackboard.

I kept sensing diagrams.

I also saw two impressions that looked like