SG1A [REDACTED] will be traveling North. Various means of transportation including planes, cars, or trains may be used to meet with people on his trip. The areas he will be visiting have a lot of green natural foliage (trees, ivy) and stone. There are bridges with arches near the river at this city location. The term "Rodchester", "Cambridge", and the name "Mahidad", surfaced during session. There is a european or english flavor associated with the military related individual [REDACTED] He is traveling with a companion. The travel will be eventful from 1-20 May. He may be learning about soldier awareness issues and some public issues may be addressed as well. He is currently thinking of work prospects. The people he is around are military types and also some foreign people. There is one woman of importance in particular, that he will be meeting with on his trip. Technical and social issues to include funding may be discussed. Pictures (cameras) and recordings of his visit are some of the activities engaged in during his tour.
