

Summary of Information

The target individual is associated somehow with the concept of dance-like movement or purposeful movement. It is soft and sweeping and melodic. Practice is necessary for any sort of proficiency in the activity.

The individual is older. However, their face is a blank and their head is covered with something reminiscent of a monk's hood. They are "elevated". It appears that I can look right through them as if looking through water.

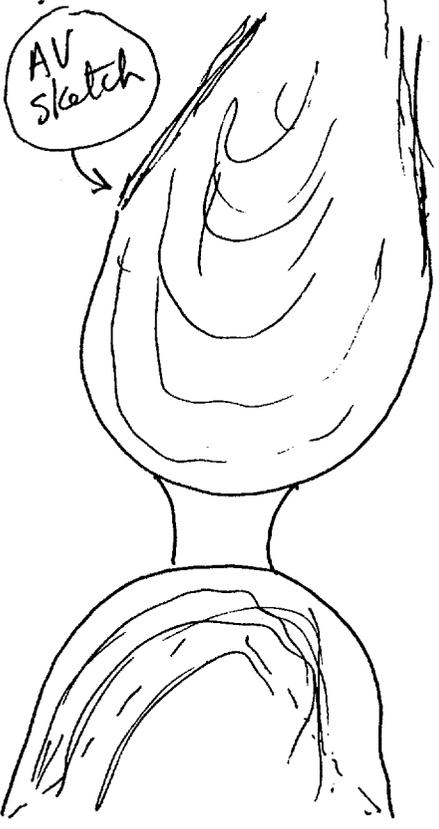

There is sloping, sweeping and sometimes steep and rugged terrain with swirls of dust and dried plants nearby. There are scattered groups of angular rocks on the ground. Horn-like sounds are associated with announcements of some sort.

There is a sphere-like object which slowly moves up and down; the feeling of levitation. There are bright rays of light emanating from the bottom of this sphere. It floats above a short tube-like object.

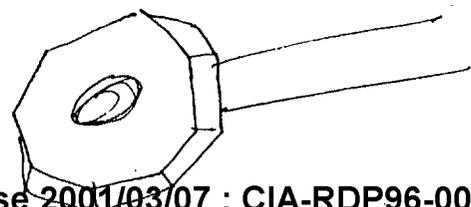

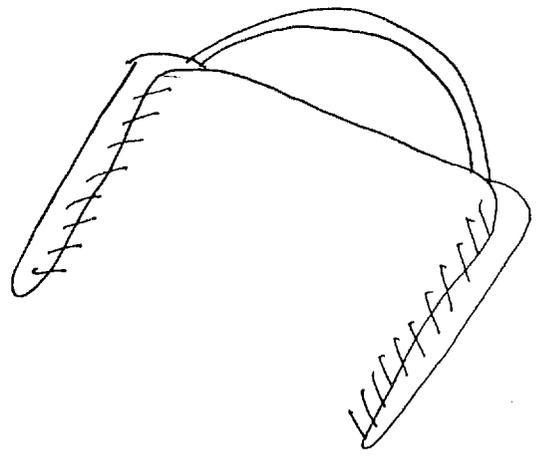

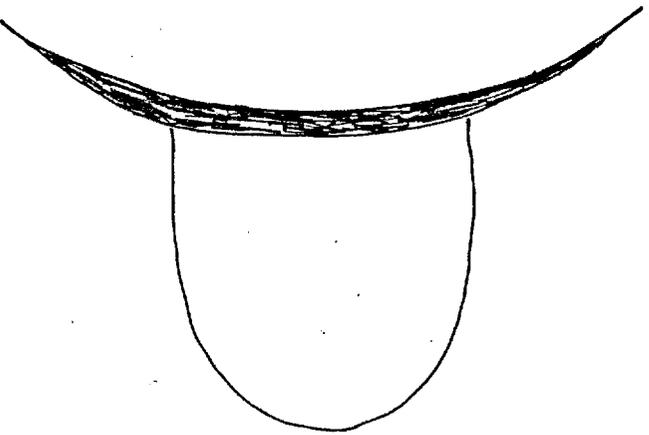

There are gray concrete surfaces which are angular. A V-shaped object supported on two ends is nearby. A black "Sphinx"-like object is sitting in a corner. There are carved reliefs on some of the walls. The term "pornographic coverup" (?) was perceived. There is a trio of visiting black crows.

There is a grate-like structure with radiating, concentric lines. The concepts of art or craft work and painting is prevalent. Someone is painting curving objects.
