SUMMARY OF INFORMATION

The vessel identified as [redacted] is currently located between Cuba and Haiti at a point estimated as 50 miles west of Port de Paix, Haiti. See ENCLOSURE 1. To all indications, the [redacted] is carrying a "big Load" of illegal drugs.

SG1A

During the period of 6 to 9 October 1988, the vessel will be located west of Andros Islands on a course for Miami, Florida, where it will off-load its illegal cargo of cocaine.

The load is stowed slightly aft of amidships below the water line. See ENCLOSURE 3. The drugs are wrapped in cellophane-type material and placed in cement square-shaped, white, cement blocks identifiable by an added thickness when compared to other blocks in the hold. The added thickness resulted from the application of a white "sealant" to the blocks.

(COMMENTS: The following additional data was received without detail or further amplification and will require additional sessions to determine its pertinency: "This operation was conceived in August 1988; its implementation was questionable until recently. The ultimate destination of the shipment was somewhere in Missouri via the Gulf of Mexico. The ports of Gulfport and Biloxi, Mississippi, surfaced as possible intermediary ports-of-call).
