SUMMARY OF INFORMATION:

Iraq will initiate an attack first. They will come across the border into Saudi Arabia near 30 20 N/43 15 E. Impression of the sky being a reddish-pink color and daylight. First there is a lack of noise, everything unusually quiet, then a very loud sound and total noise. Tanks, guns, machinery, and a strong gunpowder smell. A feeling of anger and also terror is prevailing. There is a bright, rectangle shape, slanted sideways (see sketch), that seemed to appear out of nowhere. There is something very important about aircraft, but I couldn't make out the details. Also, the date 10 August surfaced (NFI).

Violence

Something bright, round, hot on my face
could see it off in the distance then it moved closer. Then I felt as if this strong round thing hit me with a "beam
of light and heat"
