SG1A

The target, is a middle-aged, slightly built individual. In the past, he has been a successful middle-man of sorts between the growers/processors and the first level smugglers in country. However, his intentions are to now bypass the first level smuggling net and either establish or become involved with the international smuggling level.

His outward appearance is that of a simple life; he lives simply. However, he has a fondness for collecting and admiring small objects which are very expensive; maybe reminiscent of prehistoric artifacts such as metal figurines or jewelry.

I sense that he has either been married and separated or has multiple wives. I see him in a small upper level apartment with very old, traditional architecture which was indicative of the "well-to-do" maybe 200 to 300 years ago. He possesses some rather really nice things: cushions, rugs, tables and several disc shaped metallic objects which shine brightly.

He is extremely "street-smart" and has had a knack for remaining invisible while involved in illegal trade/smuggling.
