Session: 01

SUMMARY OF INFORMATION:

SG1A

1. (S/STD) Is the callsign associated with a vessel or a land station?: A vessel.
2. (S/STD) If a vessel, give:
 - a. Description: Large. Sides are black from waterline up to a narrow cream-colored band at the top. The foredeck is also light or cream-colored, and is bowed upward (see sketch, Fig. 1). The back end of the ship is pronouncedly rounded (see sketch, Fig. 2). The superstructure is also light cream-colored.
 - b. Location: At time of search (1307 hrs, 11 APR 90), ship was located at approximately 20 deg. 40' N / 68 deg 15' W. and appeared to be heading in a northward direction (see map, Fig. 3).
 - c. Carrying contraband?: Impression was of contraband in the form of arms/weapons.
 - d. If so, where is contraband on board?: At time of search (1315 hrs, 11 APR 90), I detected what appeared to be a cache of weapons located on the right side of the ship, slightly forward, approximately level with the waterline (see diagrams, Figs 4 & 5).
 - e. Name of the vessel: Repeated attempts produced "Her...",

"Hernandez", "Herman", "Herakel (stress on the a)". I have no confidence in these.

3. (S/STD) Identify any associated vessels or callsigns: This tasking not addressed in this session.

4. (S/STD) Provide any indications of pending smuggling activity:

Impressions of destination for the arms/weapons being on the eastern coast of the southeastern U.S. at a bay whose mouth is circled on the north and east by a semi-circle of small islands (see sketch, Fig. 6). General area not further specified in this session. There was a strong impression that the weapons would be dropped underwater for divers to pick up later.
