MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Congressional Inquiry (U)

SG1J

1. (U) [redacted] DIA GRILL FLAME Action Officer, called at 0830 hrs, 8 July 1981, and informed me that DIA had received an inquiry from Congressman Tom Hagedorn, House of Representatives. He believed that Congressman Hagedorn was from Minnesota.

SG1J

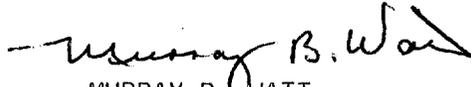

2. (U) Congressman Hagedorn had received a letter from a constituent asking for information about the military using 6 psychics to gather information

SG1A

[redacted] [redacted] stated that he was putting together a response which essentially would say that DIA had no information/knowledge concerning the topic and he wanted to know if I could shed any light on the subject.

SG1A

3. (S/NOFORN) I informed him that the figure "6" bothered me since that was the exact number we sent for training at SRI. Also, we had done some work on [redacted] but not with 6 people. I asked him to contact MAJ O'Keefe, OACSI, for official Army guidance as I was not empowered to do so. Further, I requested that he keep us informed of any actions taken concerning this inquiry.
