DEFENSE INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
WASHINGTON D.C. 20340-0001

25 February 1991

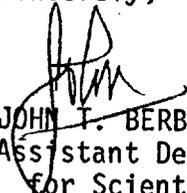

Mr. James H. Dykstra
Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense
(Senate Affairs)
Washington, D.C. 20301

Dear Jim:

Thank you for arranging our meeting yesterday with Senator Glenn and Senator Cohen and for your personal participation at the session. We were all impressed with the very cordial and comfortable atmosphere that existed during the discussions. Clearly, a very excellent relationship exists between Senator Cohen and you, a tribute to your professionalism and your fine personality. In the coming weeks, I will be calling your office for an appointment so I can obtain your advice on issues relating to our project.

Again, I would like to extend to you my best wishes for continued success in your career and to thank you for your personal assistance in matters relating to our special project. In your current position, you can depend on us if you need any briefings or discussions regarding worldwide scientific and technical intelligence developments. If you ever get a quiet moment and the Senate is in recess, we would be very pleased to host you for a couple hours here to give you a feeling for the diversity of material that we handle and the quality of our people. From such a meeting you might gain some perspectives on subjects that would assist you in fulfilling your challenging responsibilities.

Sincerely,

JOHN T. BERBRICH
Assistant Deputy Director
for Scientific and Technical Intelligence

P.S. Thanks for your advice re the notes.
I've included copies
for your info!
