

UNCLASSIFIED

collected at -- 1958, which are more numerous (especially November 1958)

are, little-known areas of this island, together with the date and exact time of distribution, sex, altitude and size of groups and the time of day in which they are observed. The ages and times in which are particularly important in feeding a juvenile. In the course of this information, the fact that they are said to have the ability to fly over a distance.

THIS PAGE IS UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED