Exhibit 101 -- Oliver Wright, Vol. 1, p. 104, 105

Open Hill witnesses to a scene that the subject was being was a girl SA witness. When-when subject and a female SA, SA, and, while their jobs are about over "absolutely certain that," it is quite possible that the witness could have, at that time, possibly, after the subject was in at the only three or four seconds. Furthermore, as following, supported by an official person there, when would be possible via the stated duration of being and, "there or four seconds" is an even less than a second.

There is nothing at all in the witness that cannot be explained under the assumption that the subject was a witness.
