I. Description of Incident

At 0200 Z three observers observed an aerial object 25 to 40 feet long and 18 to 25 feet thick with the appearance of two soap bowls put together. There were several lighted windows with what appeared to be a porthole on the side. The object moved slowly at first, then began a rapid climb. The character of the appearance was unclassified. The object first appeared at 300 to 500 yards distance from the observers at an altitude of 10 to 15 feet.

II. Characterization of Incident

An investigation of the sources revealed that they are known, reliable and, at least in one case, relatively experienced persons.

III. Conclusion
