

UNCLASSIFIED
SECRET

Adak, Alaska

4 January 1955

I. Description of Incident

At 0920 a bluish spherical light with a tapering tail was observed moving westwardly at a tremendous speed and at a great distance, parallel to the horizon, for 5 seconds.

II. Description of Incident

The report indicates that the object was probably a meteor. The description given closely approximates a meteor's performance.

III. Conclusion

Probably astronomical phenomenon.

THIS PAGE IS UNCLASSIFIED

SECRET
UNCLASSIFIED