time to determine all essential and necessary facts which should be disclosed by an ideal completed form. A coding scheme is being devised to record these facts and to facilitate analysis. The project files for 1965 and 1961 were made available recently and this material is used in indoctrination and coding studies. Upon completion of coding, analysis of the files will begin, probably within one month.

The clipping service has been initiated and approximately 250 clippings have been received. The NY article is responsible for 90 per cent of the clippings, with the remainder being a few new sightings reported concurrently from several sources. These clippings are reprinted here xerographically and the originals are transmitted to the Sponsor.
