Dear Sammy:

I never thought it would be said that I would join the great army of flying saucer seers. However, note the attached report. I know that you have some sort of a section that is considering these reports; therefore I send this to you so that you may pass it along to them.

The duration, distinctness, and the complete unexpectedness of my sifting leave me positive of the details of my report. Never more will I be skeptical of anybody's fanciful tales. Please don't think that the desert has got the best of me.

Best personal regards.

Sincerely,

E. M. DAY
Brigadier General, USAF
