could build the big pyramids and temples and all those beautiful buildings they had in those days. Slaves? Perhaps!

That all depends on how you read the Bible of course. As you read the Bible take "did what" as a child will show we would not get very far in the investigation, would we now?

Sometimes, I remember would have had to happen in the first place, or the Bible to even remain today and ~~to~~ withstand for 2,500 years and more of course.

It was something out of the ordinary that happened at the time and all the way back to Adam and Eve if you please.

Strange that the people of the time was or very little up on Scientific knowledge however, and it is a shame that the Scientists of TODAY is so little interested in the facts behind the Bible. It is
