

100-1000

On 10/10/1944, I was at the office of the Director of the Bureau of the Census, Washington, D.C., and I was informed by the Director that the Bureau was planning to send me to the Philippines to investigate the situation in that country.

I was at the office of the Director of the Bureau of the Census, Washington, D.C., on 10/10/1944, and I was informed by the Director that the Bureau was planning to send me to the Philippines to investigate the situation in that country. I was at the office of the Director of the Bureau of the Census, Washington, D.C., on 10/10/1944, and I was informed by the Director that the Bureau was planning to send me to the Philippines to investigate the situation in that country.

I was at the office of the Director of the Bureau of the Census, Washington, D.C., on 10/10/1944, and I was informed by the Director that the Bureau was planning to send me to the Philippines to investigate the situation in that country. I was at the office of the Director of the Bureau of the Census, Washington, D.C., on 10/10/1944, and I was informed by the Director that the Bureau was planning to send me to the Philippines to investigate the situation in that country.

I believe that I was at the office of the Director of the Bureau of the Census, Washington, D.C., on 10/10/1944, and I was informed by the Director that the Bureau was planning to send me to the Philippines to investigate the situation in that country.

Very respectfully,
John Edgar Hoover
Director

John Edgar Hoover
Director
U. S. Bureau of the Census