Colonel LOBB observed a luminous, greenish-blue colored object to the southeast, approximately 45 degrees above the horizon. The object appeared to have serrated contours and was approximately the size of a baseball. The shape of the object appeared to be spherical or slightly tear drop in shape. Colonel LOBB did not observe any exhaust connected thereto.
The object was moving in a straight line toward the northwest and traversed approximately 1/2 degree of the horizon before it disappeared to the west into the glow of the ball park lights. Colonel LOBB advised that he observed the object for about three seconds before it disappeared. Colonel LOBB could not determine with any object at that time could he estimate the distance of the object. Colonel LOBB stated that he could not determine the exact time of the sighting, but that he was sure it was between 20:00 hours and 21:00 hours. Colonel LOBB stated that he did not see any other objects at that time and that he did not see any other objects at that time.
