| A. Yes.   |            |          |             |
| Q. There were no US aircraft airborne when you observed these objects, is that correct?   |            |          |             |
| A. Yes.   |            |          |             |
| Q. Did you report this incident to anyone?  |            |          |             |
| A. No, we drove around trying to locate the house number that we had been assigned. Later the Desk Sergeant phoned the Sheriff's office in El Centro. |            |          |             |
| Q. What time approximately was this?  |            |          |             |
| A. About 0318.  |            |          |             |
| Q. Eight minutes after the first sighting?  |            |          |             |
| A. Yes, about that length of time.  |            |          |             |
| Q. You are quite sure about the time?   |            |          |             |
| A. Yes, I am positive.  |            |          |             |
| Q. Do you have Radio Equipped Patrol Cars?  |            |          |             |
| A. No we do. Two way with the Sheriff's office.   |            |          |             |
| Q. Do they maintain continuous listening?   |            |          |             |
| A. Yes they do.   |            |          |             |
| Q. Have you discussed or compared notes or acquired of anyone since the incident?   |            |          |             |
| A. Only what I read in the paper.   |            |          |             |
| Q. What paper?  |            |          |             |
| A. The Imperial Valley Press.   |            |          |             |
| Q. What date was it?  |            |          |             |
| A. The same day I saw the objects.  |            |          |             |
