

Timothy R. O'Neill, The Individuated Hobbit: Jung, Tolkien, and the Archetypes of Middle-Earth	Bonniejean Christensen 78
Hamida Basmajian, Metaphors of Evil: Contemporary German Literature and the Shadow of Nazism	Morris Vos 79
Mircea Eliade, The Old Man and the Bureaucrats	Kathleen Verduin 81
BIBLIOGRAPHY	85
CONTRIBUTORS NOTES	112
POETRY
UFOs	Marie J. Post 2
Lama Sabachthani	Frederick Zydek 7
The Dream	John Ower 18
Thoughts on a Passage in Hebrews	Paula Sites 45
The 27th Letter	Eugene Warren 52
An Etymology	John Ower 60
Those who chart their lines	Cliff Ross 83
In the Cycle of the Days	Cliff Ross 84
Lord all the world is death	Cliff Ross 84
The Evolution of a Dream	Evelyn Bence 100
A Parking Lot Pine Tree Whispers in the Wind	John Ower 101
Cajun Salvation	Margaret Whitty 102

UFOs

*Elisha knew all about them,
their heavenly origin,
their lightning characteristics
but he lived in close proximity to his Lord so never asked "how" or "why."
His servant, on the other hand,
is more like us, needing second sight
to see the Lord's hand-picked messengers-- that galaxy of fire cantering, flame-carrioled hosts
swooping to aid
then lifting up perpendicular as Jacob's ladder!*

--Marie J. Post