GREETINGS TO ALL MY EARTHLING AND ALIEN FRIENDS

It is another year gone by, wow, I can really relate to the quickening, August is our 11th year. Just a reminder to everyone that yearly membership is due for those of you who attend the meetings.

I would like to thank Flor for her greatly informative presentation at our last meeting, and I am looking forward to our guest speakers Dr. Tony Jinks and Suzanne Hanson at this meeting. The September meeting is also one to look forward to, an evening with Psychic Medium Debbie Malone.

Linda Moulton Howe's presentation was a great success, Linda is a wealth of knowledge, as well as being a very nice, accommodating person. Kellie and I were fortunate enough to be included in an invitation only dinner with Linda, an opportunity for researchers to network. Two of our long term members Mike Child and Mark Livingstone accompanied me to Linda's talk at Paddington RSL and for those of you who missed it, there is a great review in this issue, written by Dudley Robb.

I would like to congratulate Attila Kaldy, our past President, on the launch of In Spirit TV airing on TVS. I would also like to congratulate another long term member, Liz Thorn, Elizabeth's Crystal Garden, on the opening of her new store in the local Campbelltown area. Liz will be hosting, in store, psychics from In Spirit TV.

and remember THE FUTURE IS IN ALL OUR HANDS.

Continuation of the Alien Letter from June Issue

Until recently, mankind lived a satisfying control of its decisions. But it is losing more and more the control of its own fate because of the growing use of advanced technologies, which lethal consequences on the earthly and human ecosystems become irreversible. You are slowly but surely losing your extraordinary capacity to make life desirable. Your resilience will artificially decrease, independently of your own will. Such technologies exist that affect your body as well as your mind. Such plans are on their way.

This can change as long as you keep this creative power in you, even if it cohabits with the dark intentions of your potential lords. This is the reason why we remain invisible. This individual power is doomed to vanish should a collective reaction of great magnitude not happen. The period to come is that of rupture, whichever it may be.

But should you wait for the last moment to find solutions ? Should you anticipate or undergo pain ?

Your history has never ceased to be marked by encounters between peoples who had to discover one another in conditions that were often conflictual. Conquests almost always happened to the detriment of others. Earth has now become a village where everyone knows everyone else but still conflicts persist and threats of all kinds get worse in duration and intensity.

Although a Human being as an individual, yet having many potential capacities, cannot exercise them with dignity. This is the case for the biggest majority of you for reasons that are essentially geopolitical.

There are several billion of you. The education of your children and your living conditions, as well as the conditions of numerous animals and much plant life are nevertheless under the thumb of a small number of your political, financial, military and religious representatives.

Your thoughts and beliefs are modelled after partisan interests to turn you into slaves while at the same time giving you the feeling that you are in total control of your destiny, which in essence is the reality.

But there is a long way between a wish and a fact when the true rules of the game at hand are unknown. This time, you are not the conqueror. Biasing information is a millenary strategy for human beings. Inducting thoughts, emotions or organisms that do not belong to you via ad hoc technologies is an even older a strategy.

Wonderful opportunities of progress stand close to big subdual and destruction threats. These dangers and opportunities exist now. However, you can only perceive what is being shown to you. The end of natural resources is programmed whereas no long-term collective project has been launched.

Ecosystem exhaustion mechanisms have exceeded irreversible limits. The scarcity of resources and their unfair distribution - resources which entry price will rise day after day - will bring about fratricide fights at a large scale, but also at the very heart of your cities and countrysides. Hatred grows bigger but so does love. That is what keeps you confident in your ability to find solutions. But the critical mass is insufficient and a sabotage work is cleverly being carried out.

Human behaviours, formed from past habits and trainings, have such an inertia that this perspective leads you to a dead end. You entrust these problems to representatives, whose conscience of common well-being slowly fades away in front of corporatist interests, with those difficulties. They are always debating on the form but rarely on the content.

Just at the moment of action, delays will accumulate to the point when you have to submit rather than choose. This is the reason why, more than ever in your history, your decisions of today will directly and significantly impact your survival of tomorrow.

What event could radically modify this inertia that is typical of any civilisation ? Where will a collective and unifying awareness come from, that will stop this blind rushing ahead ?

Tribes, populations and human nations have always encountered and interacted with one another. Faced with the threats weighing upon the human family, it is perhaps time that a greater interaction occurred.

A great roller wave is on the verge of emerging. It mixes very positive but also very negative aspects.

Who are the "third party" ?

There are two ways to establish a cosmic contact with another civilisation: via its standing representatives or directly with individuals without distinction. The first way entails fights of interests, the second way brings awareness.

The first way was chosen by a group of races motivated by keeping mankind in slavery, thereby controlling Earth resources, the gene pool and human emotional energy.

The second way was chosen by a group of races allied with the cause of the Spirit of service. We have, at our end, subscribed to this disinterested cause and introduced ourselves a few years ago to representatives of the human power who refused our outstretched hand on the pretext of incompatible interests with their strategic vision.

That is why today individuals are to make this choice by themselves without any representative interfering. What we proposed in the past to those whom we believed were in a capacity to contribute to your happiness, we propose it now to ... you!

Most of you ignore that non-human creatures took part in the exercise of those centralising powers without them being neither suspected nor accessible to your senses. This is so true that they have almost very subtly taken control. They do not necessarily stand on your material plan, and that is precisely what could make them extremely efficient and frightening in the near future. However, be aware that a large number of your representatives are fighting this danger ! Be aware that not all abductions are made against you. It is difficult to recognize the truth !

How could you under such conditions exercise your free will when it is so much manipulated ? What are you really free of ?

Peace and reunification of your peoples would be a first step toward the harmony with civilisations other than yours.

That is precisely what those who manipulate you behind the scenes want to avoid at all cost because, by dividing, they reign! They also reign over those who govern you. Their strength comes from their capacity to distillate mistrust and fear into you. This considerably harms your very cosmic nature.

This message would be of no interest if these manipulators' tutorate did not reach its peak and if their misleading and murderous plans did not materialise in a few years from now. Their deadlines are close and mankind will undergo unprecedented torments for the next ten cycles.

To defend yourselves against this aggression that bears no face, you need at least to have enough information that leads to the solution.

As is also the case with humans, resistance exists amongst those dominant races. Here again, appearance will not be enough to tell the dominator from the ally. At your current state of psychism, it is extremely difficult for you to distinguish between them. In addition to your intuition, training will be necessary when the time has come.

VICE PRESIDENT'S REPORT

"Long experience has taught me this about the status of mankind with regard to matters requiring thought: the less people know and understand about them, the more positively they attempt to argue concerning them, while on the other hand to know and understand a multitude of things renders men cautious in passing judgement upon anything new."

Galileo Galilei, Italian astronomer & physicist (1564 - 1642)

Who can believe that half of the year has already gone and we are now just about at the end of winter. This is good news for our investigative team, as the weather will be also more favourable to sit under the stars to nightwatch as well as more member nights.

Lorraine mentioned in our July meeting, that Darren Terry was moving to Queensland. Darren was our Treasurer and long time investigator and we are now very excited to announce that he has started up our Queensland branch.

UFO-PRSA QLD is now up and running and over the course of the coming months Darren will be looking to start member meetings just as we do here. He has put an advertisement in the local paper with his email contact for locals to report sightings directly to him.

The QLD contact email is ufoprsa.qld@gmail.com so please drop him an email to say high or pass on his details to family or friends that may live in Qld.

As Lorraine mentioned in her President's Report, we were extremely grateful to be asked to attend the dinner for Linda Moulten Howe the night before her presentation.

Linda was very gracious with her time and Lorraine and

I were able to spend quality time with Linda discussing what our group is doing and get her opinion on a number of subjects. It was a wonderful night and a big thanks goes to Megan Hazelwood for all her work getting Linda to Australia, as well as UFO Research NSW for our invitation.

Next months meeting will be exciting with Debbie Malone returning, so make sure you book your seats early as numbers are limited.

ET's, TIME TRAVELLERS AND SELF-ACTIVATION MACHINES

The presentation by Linda Moulton-Howe in Sydney, 20 July, 2012.

By Dudley Robb

Even the foul weather of late in Sydney ( cold, windy and heavy showers of lashing rain ) couldn't stop a large crowd attending this amazing talk by Linda Moulton Howe on Wednesday night. She arrived here from the USA to give the same lecture at the NEXUS conference on Saturday in Queensland.

She started with her initial research on cattle mutilations, a subject which she covered in her first book, 'A Strange Harvest', which was the subject of a TV documentary later in the 1990's. These strange events which occurred to cows, horses, pigs and other farm animals concerned the mysterious surgical removal of various organs and other body parts from these unfortunate animals with precision and no blood found with any of the open wounds associated with these operations and the perpetrators were never discovered until a witness observed an amazing sight: two grey suited beings of alien appearance were seen to be around a cow that was at the base of an approximate one metre diameter column of bright light that reached up several metres into the base of a large, silent hovering alien craft. The animal was smoothly levitated into the body of this strange vehicle's underside and then the craft ascended and travelled away until it was out of sight. The next morning the cow was found with various organs missing as described above. When the police were notified by irate farmers about these types of incidents, the police told Linda, "The perpetrators are from outer space and if we said that to the public at large they would think we are nuts!"

This led Linda into the whole field of UFO research where any person involved in these types of investigations soon discovers the amazing blanket of secrecy that has been put into place by several governments since World War Two. During the various large formations of aircraft on bombing runs over Germany and other areas of the war theatre, both German, British and American pilots were startled to sometimes see numbers of orange lights swarm around their aircraft in flight, sometimes pacing them and sometimes flying directly at their aircraft in flight. Their reports were quickly passed up all the way to both Churchill and Eisenhower. Churchill ordered that a strict secrecy pact be implemented between America and Britain and this Top Secret would have to be maintained for at least 50 years AT ALL COSTS! So a secret structure handling these UFO reports was already in place when various alien craft were crashing or accidentally brought down all over the American southwestern States, particularly in New Mexico and Arizona, from 1946 to 1949. These UFO's were paying very close attention to the world's military developments, including especially the atomic bomb test in New Mexico and the subsequent V2 rocket tests that were being launched as part of America's larger programme to develop ICBM's and ultimately large rocket engines like the Saturn 5 that took astronauts to the Moon and back 6 times. On at least one occasion a UFO was seen on movie film taken by a camera tracking a V2 rocket in flight and this particular UFO whizzed around the V2 several times when the rocket reached a high speed at high altitude and somehow sabotaged the guidance mechanism, causing the warhead / nose cone to break away and fall back to Earth. This caused heightened alarm among the various governmental intelligence agencies who by now were well aware that they were dealing with intelligent alien entities of unknown origin. Their extreme fear in secret is the reason for the indefinite cover-up of the subject worldwide. They even removed ALL newspaper archives in New Mexico for the period 1946 to 1949, which of course spans the famous alien craft crash at Roswell in July 1947.

Meanwhile UFO's swarmed over all parts of the Earth in greater numbers since the first atomic bomb test in New Mexico and UFO's followed all Apollo craft to the Moon and were frequently filmed on several occasions from the International Space Station. Neil Armstrong took several photos of them on his way to the Moon and handed the camera with the film to the appropriate NASA officials upon his historic return to Earth. When he asked to see the developed pictures that he took, he was confronted with the reply, "What are you talking about?" and all his subsequent sometimes heated requests to see HIS pictures were greeted in the same way! He got the message never to ask again! He subsequently became a most reclusive astronaut and never gave any public interviews about his historic feat from the day he returned to Earth, a situation he still maintains till the present time.

Throughout the past 60 years numerous photos of these variously shaped craft have been taken and only in the past 3 years some very good, extremely close up, detailed pictures have been obtained by witnesses of a a very strange type of craft that is just the opposite of any aerodynamic shaped aircraft that are common on Earth! This group of UFO's was referred to as "Dragonfly Drones" by Linda and they tend to hover just alongside or above trees, seemingly defying gravity in almost complete silence ( sometimes a very faint hum is audible ) while carrying out their particular mission, which, according to a witness under a hypnotic recall session, amounts to gathering DNA specimens of Earth fauna and animals including human DNA. This accounts for the alien abduction phenomenon. The reason for their actions is to help these ET's to restore their original "good" DNA, the last supply being available here and now in our present time before something "bad" happened to change it all in what appears to be our immediate future! You see, what these ET's told this witness is that they are really US, but from a time well into our future and they are paying us visits by travelling back in time to OUR present time in a sort of "band aid" operation to help THEMSELVES! ( not us ). Does this mean that our current actions in genetically modifying food items and also animal species, etc. is going to have harmful effects for our future generations? That is what is implied in this ET message, but that is just my opinion!

Photographs of these dragonfly drones show detailed inscriptions of what looks like language characters on parts of the structure and they are in fact part of a code that represents a very sophisticated software that causes these robot machines to sort of think for themselves ( AI - Artificial Intelligence ) carry out their sample gathering missions of body parts, DNA, etc. and also repair themselves when necessary! Sometimes the software and these machines might experience "glitches" just like our own computer systems do every so often. Two examples were mentioned by Linda and the details are as follows.

The famous sequence of multiple sightings by many witnesses at Rendlesham Forest in England in 1980 was a case of a self-activation machine coming down for a "rest" after it developed trouble while preparing to repair itself. It knew in advance that the NRMA wouldn't have a clue in fixing this particular problem! The fact that it came down more or less into this highly sensitive, jointly operated British and American Air Force Base and became obvious to security guards and the Base Commander very quickly, was the reason for an almighty 'flap' and upheaval in secret that went all the way up to high government levels in both Britain and the USA and caused panic for days between the two governments and it is just another one of the many reasons that governments are scared out of their wits about these unknown entities! Especially when this self-activation machine seemed to be visited by a number of its 'friends' in the form of balls of coloured light that were flying around and hovering over what turned out to be NATO's largest nuclear weapons storage depot over a period of two nights! Worse still, these little demons caused great damage to several of these nuclear weapons stored there by aiming beams of light on to these weapons and many were made impotent until very expensive repairs were ultimately made to restore them to operational status. The government couldn't send the huge damages bill ( ultimately paid for by us human taxpayers! ) to these particular entities because they didn't even know what planet they came from! Recently, the witness mentioned by Linda, told the world via hypnotherapy that they are presently from a solar system made up of 23 planets. Their particular world is a bit smaller than Earth but has 4 moons orbiting it, similar in size to ours.

The other example of these self-activation machines sometimes going wrong happened when one of the smaller captured ones ( from a crashed craft? ) was set on a table while being investigated by a team including a leading scientist in charge of some tests they were hoping to perform. Unexpectedly, the alien machine suddenly sent out a tentacle that reached up and plucked out the eyeball of the scientist in front of it! There was no blood to be seen because all blood vessels, nerves etc, were instantly sealed off, completely healed in a flash and no other problems were immediately apparent to the unfortunate scientist! The trouble was that nobody then knew how to command the machine to insert the eyeball back into the man's eye socket. The machine became dormant and remained inoperable.

That was certainly one experiment the unfortunate scientist will remember for the rest of his life! This "trick" of removing an eye socket for possible lens correction or solving other optical problems and inserting the eyeball back into place has already been demonstrated to another witness I read about in a book on the abduction phenomenon a long while ago. The witness was aboard a craft in the presence of alien entities when one of them quickly removed his eyeball and after examining it and possibly doing something to it, then quickly and cleanly inserted it back into place in the man's skull and everything regarding his eyesight was instantly returned back to normal! Don't ask me why they do it! If I had to guess, it would be that the alien inserted a tiny tracking device behind the eyeball to stop human surgeons getting at it easily! This is because some surgeons have successfully removed implants from people's feet, nose and other regions of the body that were relatively easy to reach.

The software for these self-activation machines would seem almost like magic to our present day programmers .....or have some of us actually managed to do similar things already and create similar machines under the usual veil of top secrecy? Maybe so, because a private company in the 1980's started a top secret project now known as CARET ( Commercial Applications of Recovered Extraterrestrial Technology ). In the 30 years or so since then, it could very well be that at least SOME of these 'dragonfly drones' could be human-engineered ones!

Under hypnosis this star witness also said that these ET's ( US visiting us from the future ) were part of or associated with the ancient Greek civilisation where the ancient 'Greek Gods' were just advanced humans that took off from Earth to colonise other regions of space and settled in this particular solar system with 23 planets, choosing a smaller one similar to Earth but with 4 moons similar in size to ours. That is probably the reason why the American Intelligence Agencies operating worldwide removed an original 1962 published book entitled, ' Ancient Greek Gods and Lore'. These ET's ( US in the past and the future! ) were probably appearing as 'Gods' to the ancient Mayan civilisation and imparted much advanced mathematical and astronomical knowledge to them as well! This enabled the Mayans to know in advance that their own particular calendar cycle would end on 21st December 2012. When I asked Linda during a break whether anything "bad" was supposed to happen after this date, she said she wasn't expecting anything unusual. I then asked her if she was fearful of being 'erased' like some previous and prominent UFO researchers in the past, like e.g. Dr. M. K. Jessup and Dr. James E. McDonald ( apparent suicides but all the hallmarks of outright assassination ) plus some more recent ones, she said she refused to be fearful of her government even though America has become a "Police State" since 9/11. She said she would pursue exposing the truth about this ET reality because the whole human race could only reach its full potential in the light of the full truth about anything and can't progress when knowledge is withheld by a secret Few who are petrified about giving up their secrets even though they are petrified about the unknown aspects of dealing with this highly advanced alien reality in our environment. Their reasons for secrecy include prevention of world chaos if the truth is now suddenly exposed but most people she surveyed said they could handle it if it was properly presented.

EERIE ENCOUNTERS

We are not alone

It was a warm night in February, when a sequence of events occurred that confirmed to me that we are not alone and someone is definitely looking out for us.

It was around 9.00pm and I was home alone. I had decided to put my hair straightener on in the kitchen on a bench which had a vinyl covering, silly, I know, but it was only supposed to be on for a few minutes. While I was waiting I had a quick bath and then placed my mobile phone next to my pillow, as my son was working away from home for the first time, I had fully charged it, just in case there were any problems, I didn't want to miss his call.

Time had passed and I jumped into bed, completely forgetting about the dangerously hot hair straightener. I had no sooner fallen to sleep when I was abruptly woken to my mobile phone's alarm. I sat up and looked at it, there was no alarm set and it was fully charged. I was confused, but I managed to fall back into a deep sleep, when suddenly I was woken by our T.V. which had managed to switch on by itself. I jumped up terrified thinking there was an intruder in the house. I looked in the lounge room, but I couldn't see anyone, I eventually went back to bed and the phone began beeping again. I couldn't sleep by now, I wondered what the hell was going on.

I decided I would go into the kitchen to get the phone charger, just in case there was some sort of battery fault. As I walked in I noticed a burning smell, the hair straightener had turned onto its side and was smouldering. I couldn't believe I had forgotten it and what made things worse is I had taken the smoke detectors down a few days earlier when I was painting and I hadn't put the replacement batteries in.

I'm not sure who was looking after me that night, but I am eternally grateful. I believe I wouldn't be here today to tell this story if I had not had the protection of my guardian angel.

Psychic QP Perception

Past Lives

By Kellie Pataky

REPETITION

Unconsciously, we repeat the stories of our current lives and our previous ones because we're trying to heal from past traumas.

We do this to reexperience our emotions, because this will give us a new chance to make a better choice. If we're conscious of our repetitions, we can find the courage to stop avoiding those difficult emotions and continuing in the same way we've always operated. Rather than looking upon repetition as neurotic and self-destructive, we should recognize that it's necessary, and its ultimate purpose is to offer us opportunities to finally work through the issues that we've struggled with again and again. Only when we change our reactions to our situations can we begin to let go of the patterns we've established and embrace healthier ones.

Acceptance without judgement is vital not only for owning our story, but also for healing ourselves. There are many forms of judgement, including self-criticism, diagnoses that are handed down or imposed upon us by ourselves or others, and self-punishment and denigration. No matter how crazy or self-destructive our behavior may seem, we should let go of our negative judgements and look at its potential to help us heal ourselves physically, emotionally, and spiritually. Blame is distorting. Karma isn't punishment – it is consequence. It functions to help us advance to the next level of consciousness.

Doris Cohen, Ph.D., has written a wonderful book about this very subject. Doris has been a clinical psychologist and psychotherapist in private practice for more than 30 years. Her approach uses therapy, hypnotherapy, past-life regressions, and dream analysis.

'Repetition – Past Lives, Life, and Rebirth' was written to help us create a shift in our own consciousness as well as that of humanity. Doris writes that in order to heal ourselves from traumas, we unknowingly repeat the stories of our lives again and again, reliving them in different scenarios in this life as well as in other lifetimes.

This repetition of our behavior patterns is neither neurotic nor pathological. It is absolutely necessary, because painful though it may be, repetition offers us multiple opportunities for facing our issues, making new choices, and healing ourselves at last.

All of us have a God-given gift of free choice, although we may be unaware of it at times. Only when we acknowledge and take full responsibility for the choices we've made in our current and past lives can we begin to change our stories and end the suffering we've been causing ourselves.

Below is an excerpt from Doris's book giving a brief overview of her story which I found quite fascinating!

I decided to familiarize myself with the process of accessing past lives by discovering my own relevant ones. I began this endeavour almost 30 years ago. I attended psychotherapy/hypnosis sessions for a year and a half and this memory came to me in the very first session when I began to delve into my own past lives.

I am hanging on to the sails with all my might. We are somewhere in the Indian Ocean in the A.D. 900s. A sudden storm rages, and the seas have become tumultuous with little warning. My pantaloons are a second skin as the waves crash over me and the pounding rain slashes at me.

Unable to maneuver the boat to safety alone, I get the Princess, my mistress, to help with the sails. She adamantly refuses, shouting “How insolent can you be?! You are just my servant! Don’t ask me to participate in something so demeaning!”

As the storm grows angrier, I so reeling over the side of the boat, cursing the Princess for her arrogance. The powerful pull of the waves instantly swallow me up, and I drown.

I discovered that the person sitting in that boat was one of my siblings in my current lifetime. Having two sisters who are older, I was often asked to bring them a glass of water or fetch something from another room. Interestingly, I always resisted helping my sister whose sole was that of the Princess in the lifetime in which I was her servant. I would inevitably say to her, completely spontaneously and without any conscious awareness, “I am not your servant, go get the glass of water yourself!” She also happened to be the sister with whom I had the most repetitive pattern of conflict with and disagreements, which were steeped in ongoing sibling rivalry. That wasn’t the case, however, with my other sister.

After the regression, I recalled that this sister who had been so cruel to me in a previous lifetime had almost drowned in the Mediterranean Sea in Tel Aviv in our current lifetime when she and I were 19 and 15 years old, respectively. She didn’t know how to swim, and going into the ocean, she got caught in a whirlpool and began to wave her hands and cry for help. I couldn’t swim either but felt compelled to follow her in and pull her out, only to be caught up in the whirlpool myself.

Lucily we were both rescued, but the core of this repetition in essence, was our past lives being re-created but in role reversal. This time she had the potential of drowning and I was the one in the position of being the rescuer.

I made the decision to make a different choice – I sought to help my adversary so that we could stop repeating our deadly rivalry in lifetime after lifetime!

REPORT

HONEYSTREET, WILTSHIRE, UK JULY 4TH

This is an interesting long design with circles at either end joined by a length of straight line designs. The circles only measure approx. 40 ft in diameter but the design as a whole stretches over 250 ft in length.

The circles themselves contain a lot of detail, you can actually see the lay of plants in a hexagonal pattern.

SIGHTING REPORTS

Tuggerawong NSW July 24th 2011

I was sitting in the dark on my balcony. I live on the shores of Tuggerah Lakes and due to the rain the water level is up to my back fence. I was staring at the water trying to destress myself. My dog was beside me and started to growl in a way that she never has before. She was staring at the water and her hackles were standing up. I noticed an orange light about 20 metres offshore and didn't pay it much attention. My dog became more insistent and i noticed that the orange light was coming towards us. I thought that it must be someone prawning. The light looked submerged and i estimate that it was the size of a dinner plate. It moved in a direct path towards me and then disappeared. I grabbed a torch because my dog was still growling and my other dog had begun to bark. The torch showed nothing. I came inside to tell my partner and saw the light fly along the water through the trees, it was much brighter and even though my lounge room light was on i could see it clearly. I ran outside with the torch and there was nothing. This all happened in the space of 5 minutes. I have no explanation, there was no plane in the sky, and even if there was the trees would have affected its reflection. There was no person as my dogs would have run down to the fence line to bark at them.

Yarrawonga Park NSW June 24th 2011

After leaving Newcastle heading south I noticed 2 bright orange lights very close together, I watched them nearly collide with each other than headed away from each other. 1 light headed east and was gone the other headed west, I listened for a noise there was none. There were no flashing lights, just an orange light. the 1 heading west I watched for around 10 mins as it slowly moved across the sky, it was very slow moving. The object then flashed twice and was gone.

Bathurst NSW October 8th 2010

It was during the practice session at the Bathurst 1000, Friday 8th 2010. The first of the V8 Supercar practice sessions had just finished and there was a break in the program, so I leaned back on my chair and looked up at the cloudy weather I noticed three Orbs following each other just below the low cloud cover. These Orbs were identical in appearance, being easily 15 metres in diameter, translucent to clear and in the centre there appeared to have a darkened line/centre, similar to that of a cat's eye marble. I brought the orbs to the attention of my friend who couldn't explain what they were or doing. The orbs followed each other for a distance where they reached a break in the clouds where they then ascended through the clouds. It was then I noticed an extremely bright light at very high altitude and stationary, approx 23,000 feet (jet cruising height). ....continues.....

.....The orbs continued to ascend to the bright light until I could not make them out by eye. I took a couple of photos with my phone camera but it did not capture the orbs. The photo of the bright light was so far away it was only just distinguishable on computer enhancement. Looking forward to my next encounter!!

Emerton NSW February 1st 2011

I live in Emerton, nsw, with my partner and young daughter. I live behind major electricity lines, and on the other side of these lines are the fences/backyards of the houses on the other side. In March this year a friend told us that he's been seeing ufos. Sparking our interest i took a camera outside during the day, then looking back on the footage it seemed we had caught 2 extremely fast UFO flying through cloud. A few days later our friend came over one night, since we all had this interest in ufos now we all went outside to my backyard (midnight). Our friend was convinced we were going to see something. I had my camera, and our friend had his crappy camera. It was a clear night, but extremely dark, we also have a clear view of the sky. We had been now standing in the backyard since midnight and it is now 3am. I was starting to lose interest but our friend insisted we just wait! It's now 4:30am and i'm starting to wander in and out of the house and leave my camera inside thinking that we're not going to see anything, and actually started to doubt the whole thing.

It's now nearly 5am, i remember specifically thinking in my head, if nothing happens in 5 minutes, I'm going to bed. So, for the first time that night all 3 of us went quiet, instead of talking. Myself, and our friend were looking at Venus facing my house. My partner was standing behind us facing out the back of our house. All was quiet for a few minutes then suddenly my partner yells, "What the "f" is that?

Our friend and I turn around simultaneously, but it had already stopped. My partner told us later that he was just looking at the stars, and then what seemed like a star suddenly expanded with bright light, as if it had accelerated and was headed straight for us but it dropped within a second to stop just on top of the rooftops of the houses behind our house/electricity lines.

It then started slowly glided over the electricity lines diagonally toward us. It glided over our neighbours backyard (not straight over our heads), as if it needed a better view. The neighbours dog started barking at it. It seemed to pause for a moment like it was looking at us and then glided in a straight line just over the rooftops (toward Sydney), as if nothing unusual was going on!

We couldn't believe it, and knew this was no ordinary ufo sighting. The UFO literally looked like a star. It was one ball of glowing extremely bright white light, no blinkers or flashes. It literally looked like a star. It was only big enough for a human to sit in it. It made absolutely no sound at all! It glided like it was gliding on silk. We felt no fear or threat from the ufo.

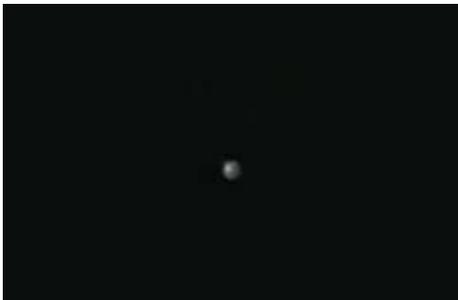

Astonished we turn back around after we lose sight of the UFO only to see quite a few of the same looking UFOs gliding in the sky but much higher in the sky but in our atmosphere. Now stupid me, didn't have my camera. But our friend caught it on his low quality camera. Since then we have witnessed alot of these ufos gliding high in the sky, usually between 4am and 6am. We have also invited curious and skeptical friends over and now they are not so skeptical. We have also witnessed alot of other strange going ons. One example is the day before the Japan Tsunami, my partner and I were out in my backyard, waiting to see the ufos, it was about 5am again when we witnessed 3 blue/green flashes in succession, but the middle flash was a huge dome like flash that rose from the ground and would have been at least the size of 2 footy fields. We couldn't believe our eyes but were also a little scared of this. However, it was so big, we though no doubt someone else must have seen that. We were that positive that we even contacted the morning show "Sunrise", (which i have never done nothing like that before). Sunrise read out what we had witnessed, but no one came forward to say that had seen the same thing. We find it strange that other people are not seeing what we are seeing, even though it is in the middle of the night. We then decided to look to see where exactly this flash came from and low and behold not far from my house is "Australia Air Services", that apparently closed down in 2005. The site was Sydney's International Transmitting Station for communications with international aircraft flying into and out of Australia from 1959 to 2005 and transmitted Australia's standard time signal from 1993 to 2002 which was used by surveyors and astronomers and for navigation purposes.

Now to the footage. I am sending that separately after i send this letter. as that involves another story: My partner and I are not computer whizzes, and had been saving all of our footage from the backyard. However about a month ago, we were using the computer, when it suddenly shut down, it turned of and on 3 times then wouldn't work. We took our computer to the repair shop. When we picked up the computer, the guy that fixed it told us it was a virus unlike he has seen before, and unfortunately about 30% of our files have been lost. We thought that's o.k. It'll only be photos or our music files.

But when we got home we discovered every file on our computer, every song, every home movie, everything was still there and saved except any files that had the words in the title such as ufo, strange lights, etc, etc. were gone. All our ufo footage was gone!!!!

However, luckily i had uploaded the footage of the UFO encounter onto Youtube. But not knowing we were going to lose our original copy i had put music over the top. And the problem with the footage is that is was so dark you can't tell that the UFO is actually gliding just about the rooftops/treetops. If it wasn't so dark you should be able to see the trees, roofs, etc. and for some reason the ufo doesn't seem as close at it was but I think it's just because there are no reference points.

This is a closeup from the original sighting, the video is being contrast reviewed and will be made available on our website.

Camera Oddities

The above photo was taken on Nokia Mobile Phone at Malabar seaside, on Wednesday 27 July 2011 at 8.59am. Because many people are using mobile Phone image sensors with tiny lenses to take sun photographs, the centres of the images are often corrupted. So what do you think? Is this a real object or a trick of the camera?

Personal Reflections; Contactee, Life Long Experienter, Teacher, Researcher and Life Long Student

By: Amander Prosser

Research and actively researching means speaking with people, listening to people, taking photographs, recording evidence, being aware and studying all available information. This means we are all researchers, even if we are only researching our own lives as we walk through our journey here on planet Earth. We are all simultaneously Students as well as Teachers, merely by virtue of sharing our experiences and learned knowledge.

Over the past year I have publicly shared my research and now I will share reflections on my personal research. During the past three years I have had many interactions with many different people, of all ages and when those interactions included any Exopolitical subject there has always been an interesting reaction.

Most people expressed a private need to talk about Intergalactic Craft and Intergalactic Visitors or Government and Religious organisations. The suggestion of meeting in groups to talk and discuss common thoughts and experiences was not always wanted. Essentially people were becoming aware and enlightened but felt it was a private and personal journey.

Personally I have found that more and more people, from every walk of life, are realising that the daily television news is not feeding their intellect or soul. Many people have openly stated they suspect they are being deluded and even lied to by media outlets, local Government and National Political leaders.

When Young Adults tell me their views of the world I am always filled with hope. School Students and Young Adults have an inherent hunger for answers to questions about their lives. They want to explore subjects that are not being made available to them within school programmes.

As a Teacher I barely need to explain to the students the need to engage with prescribed lessons. If Students want to speak with me about their interest to learn outside the curriculum, then we need to stay within acceptable boundaries. The Students know my professional position and the political ramifications of openly teaching them about subjects that are not considered mainstream, but, on which reams and reams of texts have been published and on which there are a litany of recorded resources from which to choose. The Internet is laden with all manner of Exopolitical subject matter. As a moot point apparently Intergalactic Craft and their related areas of interest are rated only second to pornography as the most searched subjects on the worldwideweb.

Students are obviously aware of available resources particularly the Internet and have a need to be guided by a Teacher. Their need is not stopped just because educational organisations refuse to update their programmes. Students are exploring their world without guidance and I imagine that is why so many of them are confused, angry, withdrawn, depressed and even suicidal. I can see why Young Adults seek out alcohol, drugs and sex. It is because it is all around them and it is the world we have created for them.

When attending my local polling booth for the most recent election I chanced upon being in line with several Young Adults. The Young Adults were fresh out of school and voting for the first time. Our conversation as we waited in line centred on the election process. I recalled seeing on television a former member of parliament who was disgruntled with the political process and urged voters to collect their voting paperwork, leave it blank and place it in the collection box. The suggested process was discussed with the Young Adults who thought it would be an an appropriate method of at least stalling the election process. The conversation had been centred on the fact that citizens should be able to organise themselves and that politicians were distanced from the realities of everyday living.

During the conversation the Young Adults had explained to me that when enough voters elected to register a blank vote then the election process would be declared null and void. The election would be repeated after a three month hiatus. The Young Adults suggested that continuing with the same process of registering a blank vote would see a three month hiatus repeated and the process would continue. We all agreed that an ongoing repeat of the process would be very interesting. The Young Adults commented that it would be interesting, as a Social experiment to witness the politicians work through the dilemma while constituents continued to attend to their everyday responsibilities such as family, employment and social interaction.

After speaking with the Young Adults I felt filled with hope and recognised deep insight and wisdom in our ensuing generations, not just as a Teacher but as a Human Being who is a part of their world and because they trusted me enough to share their real thoughts and opinions not the thoughts and opinions they needed to give me because they have been trained to give the answer the Teacher expects in order to pass an exam.

A completely different conversation occurred when a Young Adult shared with me her deepening connection with her Intuitive ability. The Young Adult explained to me that when she pulled her car over to the side of the road, to enable a u turn and she could not see oncoming traffic she would wait. She explained how even though she could not see the oncoming traffic she knew when cars were coming and knew what colour they would be and what make.

My immediate comment was about how safe I would be if I was ever in the car with her as a driver. How proud I felt that I had allowed her to speak with me about her personal and private need to explore her Spirituality and now she was sharing details of her developing abilities. There is no need to question the ethics or morals of such interaction when considering the safety aspects of the situation described.

There appears to be many students who are interested in their entire Universe. Students have shared their unexplained stories with me in the classroom and I see the need to guide them as they explore and learn. I see clearly why they choose to speak with me and that is because I respect their honesty. I allow them to speak freely as it is their classroom and I am only a visitor.

An experience that was shared with me came from an Adult who had a beautiful interaction with a young relative. The Adult has a deep and lifelong understanding of Intergalactic Visitors and Intergalactic Craft and this is evident in their home. The Child asked the Adult to please not speak about Intergalactic Visitors and Intergalactic Craft when they were to attend a school function. The Adult assured the Child that there were plenty of conversation topics that could and would be utilised while in attendance and that Intergalactic Visitors and Craft were not the only subject that would be discussed.

The Adult arrived at the school function and the Children had all worked on a common artwork that had been decorated individually with personal motifs. The Adult was offered the opportunity to look at all the artworks and guess which one the Child had decorated. Walking along a table laden with the artworks the Adult noticed butterflies and the sun and houses and all manner of similarly themed artwork. The Adult stopped and immediately recognised the work of her Child, it was decorated with Intergalactic Visitors and Intergalactic Craft.

Who says Children go to school to learn from the Teachers? Children are learning from the moment they enter the atmosphere. The Child featured in this experience was setting up their much loved relative for a beautiful surprise. Children, when we let them, will always show us if and when they have been looking and listening and how much they have learned. We as a society seem intent on controlling Children and telling them what they will learn and when they will learn and seldom allow personal choices until well into secondary school.

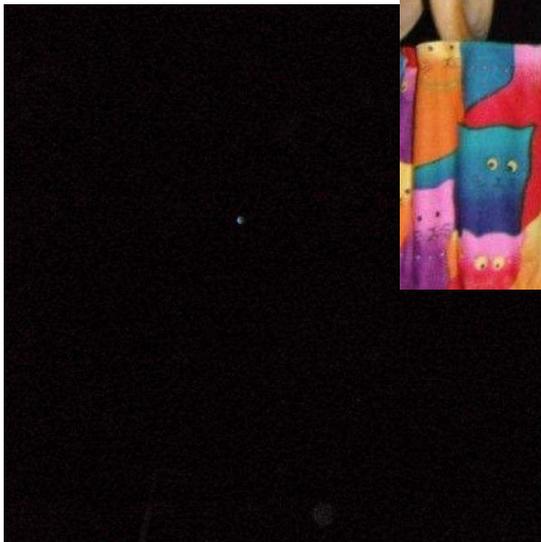

In recent months I have had an extraordinary amount of conversations where Adults have commented on the way young people are growing up. Many Adults comment on the sensitivity of Children, particularly towards animals, the Earth and the way we live. Children have an enormous capacity to open up when we let them only we still school them in a very militaristic manner. At many school the Students must line up and wait for permission to enter the room, they are then expected to settle down in silence and behave perfectly. I would much prefer they enter the room, pull out their books and prepare for the lesson with excitement and anticipation. Excitement and anticipation is exaggerating I know, how can they get excited when the same subjects are being taught the same way since mainstream schooling began. Apart from specialist schools all schools group Students together and send them to high school where they are immediately separated and the social stigmas become attached.

I care deeply about Students and Young Adults and the methods in which they are expected to learn. I hope the Students and Young Adults keep telling me their unexplained stories and drawing me pictures because they are Teaching me. Teaching me that schools need to evolve just like the people who attend them.

As my interactions, communications and research with Students and Young Adults has increased so too has the interaction and research with my Intergalactic Visitors and Craft. Included with this article are photographs I have taken in recent times. There is a photograph taken at my kitchen window of a face. I sent the photograph to experts who confirmed it was a face and that the evidence fits the pattern of research clearly evinced by Experiencers.

Also attached to this article are photographs taken in my front yard during the recent Lunar Eclipse. I took close to one hundred photographs and in every photograph I captured Orbs. Some Orbs are stationary, others are moving and some are quite simply spectacular. I encourage readers to study the photographs and offer opinions, theories, comparisons to similar evidence, advice and any thoughts.

My life journey is currently amazing. I am a fully awakened Contactee and Life Long Experiencer and I could not imagine life any other way. I am privileged, blessed and wake up every day wondering what is next. I go to sleep every night wondering who and what will happen in my lucid dreams. I feel empowered by my increasing knowledge even when it means learning of the pain and despair of my fellow Human Beings. I feel their pain and I care deeply for them even when I am far away and unable to constructively help in a physically productive way. I know that being awakened is an asset and being a Life Long Experiencer means my Soul, my Intellect and Spirit are being guided. The Wise and gentle sentient Beings who are guiding me are also guiding countless other Human Beings.

When society is ready to evolve and ready to move together with regards to their learning and knowledge, I know I will be ready to evolve along with everyone else because I have been blessed with kind and wise Teachers, who allowed me to make mistakes and work out their resolve. I had kind and wise Teachers who helped me no matter what I was thinking or feeling and who loved and respected me unconditionally, no matter what was occurring in my head or my heart.

They still love and respect me unconditionally and they trust me. The photograph of the face at the window was in my camera for many weeks until I enlarged it and studied it on my computer screen. They are always very patient, they knew I would see them watching over me while I learn everything I can possibly learn - everyday.

With Much Peace

NB: My next article will be about ideas I am formulating on how to help classroom learning evolve. I am ready to practice on friends.

FACTFINDER

Frederick Fisher was an ex convict who had earned his Ticket-of-Leave. This meant that he was able to purchase property and work for himself, with most of the privileges of a free man. He bought himself a farm in Campbelltown and did quite well for himself. Unfortunately he had some problems with the law, and in order to avoid losing all his property he signed them over to his neighbour, George Worrall, on the understanding that he would get the property back when he returned from his sentence in gaol.

Unfortunately George Worrell had become used to the idea of having all that land, and shortly after his return, Fred Fisher disappeared. It happened on the 17th June 1826, after he had been out drinking with friends. George Worrell told people that Fred had returned to England because of more legal trouble, and that he had signed all his property over to him.

Most people in the area were suspicious of this story, and late one night a man named John Farley came into the local hotel looking rather shaken. He claimed to have seen the ghost of Fred being Fisher on the bridge over the creek, pointing to a paddock downstream.

On the 25th October 1826 a search party set out to scour the area, and the body of Frederick Fisher was soon discovered buried in a shallow Aboriginal trackers, and no mention is made of ghosts.

Due to the high profile of this particular ghost story, the UFO-PRSA team decided to conduct an investigation in the area that these events are believed to have occurred in. Sharon Hood also accompanied the team on this investigation as a guest medium.

Unfortunately nobody picked up the spirit of poor Fred Fisher. Sharon, however, did pick up the spirit of a young girl called Ruby under the main stage area of the Campbelltown Theatre, who she thought was a contemporary of Fred Fisher. My research has failed to find any evidence that a young girl by the name of Ruby died in the area at the appropriate time.

This does not mean that she did not exist. Official registration of births, marriages and deaths did not begin in NSW until 1856. This means that the only records we have for this time period are church registers. If the register recording the burial did not survive, or if the burial was on private ground, then there is no way of confirming the event.

grave. The official version, however, has the body
