RESEARCH NOTES

- 1. A retired American psychology professor, Robert A. Baker, has recently had a book titled: "They Call it Hypnosis" published by Prometheus Press. Apparently it contains some references to UFO aMuctions and the work of myself and Bob Bartholomew on fantasy-prone personalities. Unfortunately the book is not yet available here in Australia.

2. Following the publication of Baker's book and his mentioning of Bob and myself, there was a small media flap here. In one week I conducted 9 radio interviews, a piece appeared in the Sydney Morning herald and I put in an appearance on Channel 9's 'Today' show. One Perth ABC radio show conducted an half an hour discussion about the UFO phenomenon, and another Adelaide ABC programme is negotiating an half hour documentary.
