WORLD UFO NEWSROUND

ALIENS CAPTURED IN BRAZIL

The reported capture of aliens at Varginha, in the state of Minas Gerais, on Saturday January 20th 1996 continues to make headlines in Brazil. The July 1996 issue of UFO magazine, published in the capital city of Brasilia, contains more detailed information on the saucer crash and subsequent capture of its alien occupants.

According to ufologist Pedro Cunha, witnesses in Varginha now claim that up to seven occupants were captured. The group included one dead alien, two badly injured and five more flushed out of hiding in the neighbourhood of Jardim Andere, a park on the north side of the city. The dead alien was first taken to the Regional Hospital in Varginha on January 20th before being shipped on to the Hospital Humanitas in Campinas in Sao Paulo state for an autopsy.

The magazine article published more detailed descriptions of the UFO occupants by the three girls who encountered an injured one in the Jardim Andere at 3:30pm on January 20th. The girls were Lilliane Silva (16), her younger sister, Valquiria Silva (14), and their friend, Katia Xavier (22), all of Varginha. The girls were walking home from their jobs as housemaids when Lilliane spotted an alien crouched about 25 feet away.

In this week's article, the girls describe the alien as being "dark brown, with small body, of 4 to 5 feet in height, no hair at all, big brown head, small neck. It also appeared to have some greasy dark oil on its skin. The head of the creature had two big red eyes, no pupils, very small mouth and nose and three protuberances on the head. The girls described the protuberances as horns".

On Sunday June 16th, the show "Programma de Domingo" aired a Varginha story on Brazilian TV. According to this story, many witnesses saw Brazilian Army trucks heading for Jardim Andere at around 10:30am on January 20th. The show also revealed that the Varginha Fire Department received its first call just after 9:30am. Someone complained of "a wild animal" loose in the park. Figuring that they were after a jaguar or a peccary, the firefighters arrived with nets and cages. When they encountered their first injured alien, the crew chief immediately put a call through to the nearest Army base, the Escola Sargentos de Armas in Tres Coracoes. He reportedly spoke to the school's commandant Gen. Sergio Coelho Lima, who ordered troops into Varginha to seal off the park.

"Programma de Domingo" also identified the men involved in the three truck convoy that transferred the aliens to Campinas on January 22nd. According to the broadcast, Lt Col Olimpio Santos commanded the convoy, accompanied by two officers, Capt. Ramirez and Lt Tide, plus a Sgt Pedrosa from S-2, Brazilian military intelligence. Corp. Cirilo and Sgt Pedrosa drove the middle truck with the aliens inside. The other trucks were driven by Private Vassalo and Private de Mello. Gen. Lima is reportedly cracking down on leaks in his command. Soldiers have been warned not to talk to ufologists like AJ Gevaerd, Pedro Cunha and Vitorio Pacacini. Personnel returning to Tres Coracoes from leave have been confined to barracks and at last report, at least one talkative sergeant is in the guardhouse.

AGENTS TAGGED IN UFO HUSH MONEY PAY OFF

Rumors of American involvement in the Varginha saucer retrieval and alien round up of January 20th, 21st continue to surface. According to Brazil's UFO magazine, an American civilian was present when the wrecked cigar shaped ufo was loaded aboard a flatbed truck the morning of January 20th.

The crash site is said to be "north of Varginha". Where ever it is, it had to be within easy walking distance for two injured aliens, as they reached the jungle-covered Jardim Andere before day break ie before 5am. The most likely sites are the coffee growing country north west of Varginha, between the village of Tres Pontes and the reservoir, and the forest serra, or ridges east of Tres Pontes. Both areas are within 10 kilometres (6 miles) of Varginha.

The UFO was first seen at lam by Enrico and Oralina Rodrigues at their farm between Varginha and Tres Coracoes. The cigar shaped UFO was flying slowly and enveloped in white smoke. The crash must have happened between lam and 5am.

Brazil's UFO magazine claims that North American Air Defense Command (NORAD) tracked the UFO late Friday night, January 19th and alerted Brazil's CINDACTA that it was coming down somewhere in southern Minas Gerais.

Luiza Fatima de Silva, mother of two of the girls who saw the alien in the Jardim Andere on January 20th says she noticed "a peculiar smell" when she went to the park at 4pm Senhora de Silva also claims that she was visited by four men last February. The unidentified men, who were not Brazilian, wore white and cream Armani suits and offered Senhora de Silva "a large amount of cash" if she would come forward and tell the media that her daughters had made up the story about the alien.

Senhora de Silva said the men showed up at her house while husband, Jose de Silva a bus driver was at work. "They said they would pay cash" she said. "They also said they would come back but we cannot hide the truth."

(Persistent rumors that cannot be substantiated - Senhora de Silva's callers drove a navy-blue 1994 Lincoln Continental with Distrito Federal (Brasilia) license plates. The presence of a USAF transport plane, either C-5 or C-17 at Sao Paulo International Airport on January 20th and Campinas airport on January 22nd. The presence of several unidentified American men at the restaurant Churrascaria Gaucha, Avenida Drive in Campinas late evening of January 21st)

AMERICAN AND BRITISH UFOLOGISTS AT VARGINHA

A large contingent of American and British UFO researchers were on hand at the big conference in Curitiba, Brazil from June 5th to June 9th. The conference was sponsored by AJ Gevaerd and several Brazilian UFO research groups.

During the conference John Carpenter and Stanton Friedman and Graham Birdsall interviewed Vitorio Pacaccini(31) an engineer from Belo Horizonte. Pacaccini briefed the trio on the Varginha case for over two hours.

Carpenter said of Varginha "In short, it's a dam good case. I'd say it may equal ROSWELL".

(This is another exclusive story brought to your attention long before other UFO magazines are able to. UFO magazine will be printing the above report in the next magazine...Ed.)

NEW SIGHTING LAST NIGHT IN GULF BREEZE

22/05/96

To all interested parties:

Wednesday May 22nd, 1996
Gulf Breeze/Pensacola Beach Florida
10:10pm

Four people on the fishing pier witness 2 black triangular shaped craft flying in formation at about 5,000 feet. Each had a small orange light in each corner. The objects flew west to east toward EGLIN AIR BASE. The witnesses reported that the craft were completely silent as they passed over the unsuspecting heads of about 150 people who were near the dock on the beach boardwalk. One of the witnesses was an intern for The North American Paranormal Network/TERRA NOVA.

We have tried contacting Pensacola Airport and EGLIN but have received no "official" response as of yet. We will pass along more information as we investigate.

One important note is that the same two craft were reported the previous night further down the beach at 9:45pm by two witnesses. We do stress that these craft do not appear to be the AURORA which is supposedly being used out of EGLIN right now. More information as we receive it. Thanks.

UFOS SIGHTED AROUND NATION

26/05/96

Source: Sunday Herald Sun (Victoria Australia)
Date: May 26, 1996

RESIDENTS in three states have reported seeing UFOs on Friday night.

The Adelaide-based director of the Australian International UFO Association, Colin Norris, said colored lights seen over Adelaide could not have been the space shuttle Endeavour.

The senior operator of the National UFO Hotline, Ross Dowe, told ABC radio early yesterday that calls about lights in the sky had also been received from people in Horsham, Wangaratta and Penrith near Sydney.

"People saw multi-colored lights moving around in Horsham at 10:30 pm, in Wangaratta at 10:40pm and in Sydney at 9pm," he said.

An eyewitness, Kathy Dickmann, 47, and her family watched three lights in the sky for 20 minutes at 9pm in the Adelaide foothills.

"We thought it was a plane or helicopter at first, but they were moving like you wouldn't expect anything we know of to move," Mrs Dickmann said. "Then we pulled over and just watched as the lights just hovered, flashing on and off about every second or so for about 20 minutes."

Mr Norris said other callers described a white ball the size of a full moon which hovered and then sank to the horizon over several minutes.

Mr Norris and Mr Dowe said six other sightings had been reported around Australia in the past week. Mr Norris said UFOs could have been monitoring the space shuttle.

But a member of the Australian skeptics society, Mr Peter Hogan, said: "We accept there is probably life elsewhere in the universe, but not that they would be visiting us."

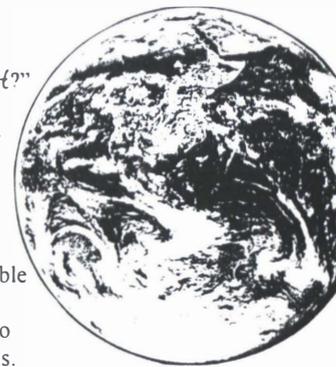

"WHAT DO THEY WANT HERE ON EARTH?"

Asking for officialdom for action about UFO data is like a Jew asking Hitler for mercy on the grounds that you have a family to care for, the storm troopers reaction is to go out and pick up the rest of the family.

Most UFO buffs think that their efforts will lead to some sensible attention by the powers that be, attention to the broad problem that UFOs present the questions, "are they invaders?", "what do they want here on Earth?" and all those other nagging questions. They come to Earth for things surface people do not know about.

Earth is on the ancient space trade routes. They come to bases (Cavern city complexes) and they mine, manufacture and some do genetic manipulations to form various subservient cross-breeding. For the most part, we are dealing with another species, humanoid in shape but reptilian in heritage. Their leader-elite are the "draco". They are cold blooded and have to balance their surrounding environment to maintain body temperature. They are suited especially for space travel, as they have the ability to hibernate.

The reptoids have scales which protect them from losing moisture through their skins. They have no sweat glands. The scales are much larger on their backs, making the skin more waterproof. The scales on their face, neck, chest and hands are smaller and more flexible. They have three fingers, with an opposing thumb. All have large cat like eyes and twin nose holes at the end of a short stubby muzzle. They are mostly meat eaters. Their mouth is more like a slit, but they have teeth differentiated into incisors, canines and molars. They average six to seven feet tall. The reptilian beings direct the efforts of the GREYS and form the largest category likely to be encountered by surface humans. They are really an order of cross breed between Homo-sapiens and the reptilian species. There are several other lines of cross breeds which have been bred for various characteristics. Some even appear more or less human. Some of the reptilians and cross breeds have sensory pits (near eyes) that act as an extra sense and can see heat. Some have a pineal eye and are telepathic, these beings can operate effectively in the dark. Their eyes are more sensitive to ultra violet light. They can control their heartbeat. The greys have a high metallic content in the skin, as well as an unusual cobalt pigmentation. Many have no external sex organs, but some have been bred to have them.

Government authorities, agents disguised as civilians and others seek to learn more about these beings. It should be noted that not all cross breeds are hostile. There is an order of small humanoids which are about 2 - 4 feet tall that work with the beings that resemble humans, except close examination will reveal unusually shaped ears. The most of these have blond hair, large foreheads and a medium dark or light complexion. The reptilian cross breeds are potentially dangerous. One variety (working with Draco) has come from a system with a light source that subjected them to a high level of radiation. It is the minds of these beings that would be considered most strange by terrestrial standards. They are hive like and demented. They are considered detrimental beings (deros). These beings do not eat (as we know the term). Some use substances that are synthetically produced, mixed with blood from living animals and humans. This substance is then mixed with hydrogen peroxide, which kills the foreign bacteria in the mixture. They may also be feeding off the "life essence" of these substances. They also seem to feed off nuclear energy, and have apparently manipulated humans into developing sources of radio active power.

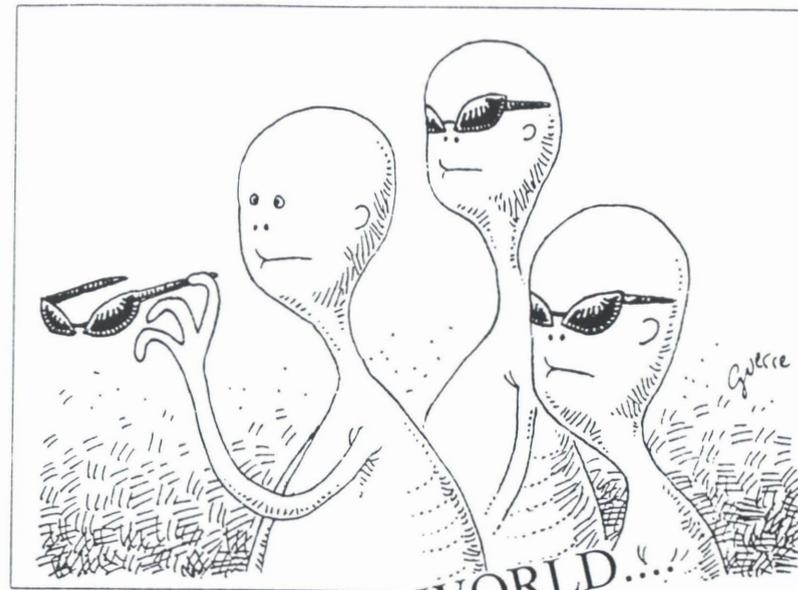

It appears that there are several groups of interlopers active on this planet. I want to focus on the Men in Black. These elusive figures are a distant part of the UFO scene. They are based deep underground and seem to use extra sensory, or technical means to locate and check up on humans who have spotted their flying craft or know too much about their activities. They seem to be some kind of a security force. The pallor of their skin and their sensitivity to light suggests they come from an environment with subdued light. Their movements and apparent pain while on Earth's surface suggest that they live in an area with less gravity field density, apparently, they are assigned to cover up the activities and secret operations of their civilization.

We must actively resist the "invaders" of our planet, our bodies and our minds.

We must expose the enemy which seeks to enslave us.

We have a sacred responsibility, based on truth, reality and hope.

Tal.Las Vegas.

More Roswell Evidence?

Has the world gone Roswell mad? In March and April a number of fragments off the Roswell crashed disc has been voluntarily handed in to Art Bell and the Roswell museum. Here is all the evidence printed for the first time.

When a flying saucer crashed near Roswell, New Mexico in July 8th 1947, the US military quickly placed armed guards around the crash site while army personal combed the area and picked up the scattered debris. The military did not get everything. A friend of a military person involved in the debris collection walked in to the UFO museum at Roswell on March 24th and asked Max Little (secretary treasurer) if he would like to see a piece of the crashed saucer. Max agreed with a little scepticism. Shortly thereafter the man talking to Max called the ex-military guy who showed up twenty minutes later with the fragment. He had a glass picture frame in which was embedded a translucent purplish and/or copperish metal piece about 2 inches wide and 3 inches long with a hole in it. They called in a photographer to take a series of pictures of the presumed artefact. The photographer had a hard time adjusting the light exposure of his camera as the metal piece seemed to have "a strange luminescence". The local tv stations and newspaper were summoned for a news release. Coverage on tv channel 7, ABC Albuquerque and the Roswell newspaper resulted. The military person involved in the UFO debris pickup whom wishes to remain anonymous, put this piece in his pocket and it has been in his possession for almost 49 years. This piece is safely locked in a safe. It will be analysed to determine its authenticity (The results of the test have recently been published in UFO magazine). It appears to be solid and not the type that when crumpled returns to its original form without wrinkles. Then I got a copy of the Roswell Sunday Record and right in the top corner there was the photograph. At first glance it just looks like a small metal sculpture, but on closer inspection there seems to be "rust spots" that are not evidence of corrosion, but are instead markings of a strange colour pattern. There are small intricate lines through out the metal as if they where leading someplace bigger at one time like a large machine. (Thanks to Dave at the UK UFO network and your fantastic mailing list.)

On the 18th April 1996, radio show host Art Bell received the following letter and various pieces of metals and electronic style components. Art Bell organised for the materials to be photographed and put their pictures and the accompanying letter on the Internet.

Dear Mr Bell,

I've followed your broadcasts over the last year or so, and have been considering whether or not to share with you and your listeners some information related to the Roswell UFO crash.

My grandfather was member of the retrieval team sent to the crash site just after the incident was reported. He died in 1974, but not before he had sat down with some of us and talked about the incident. I am currently serving in the military and hold a security clearance, and do not wish to 'go public' and risk losing my career and commission. Nonetheless, I would like to tell you briefly what my own grandfather told me about Roswell. In fact, I enclose for your safekeeping 'samples' that were in the possession of my grandfather until he died, and which I have had since his own estate was settled. As I understand it, they came from the UFO debris and were among a large batch subsequently sent to Wright-Patterson AFB in Ohio from New Mexico. My grandfather was able to 'appropriate' them, and stated that the metallic samples are "pure extract aluminium". You will note they appear old and tampered, and they have been placed in tissue paper and in baggies for posterity.

I have had them since 1974, and after considerable thought and reflection give them to you. Feel free to share them with any friends in the UFO research community I have listened to many people over the years discuss Roswell and the crash events as reported by many who were either there or who heard about it from eyewitnesses.

The recent Roswell movie was similar to my grandfather's own account, but a critical element was left out, and it is that element which I would like to share.

As my grandfather stated, the team arrived at the crash site just after the AAF/USAF reported the ground zero location. They found two dead occupants, hurled free of the disc.

A lone surviving occupant was found within the disc, and it was apparent it's left leg was broken. There was a minimal radiation contamination, and it was quickly dispersed with a water/solvent wash, and soon the occupant was dispatched for medical assistance and isolation. The bodies were sent to Wright Patterson AFB for dispersal. The debris was also loaded onto three trucks which finished the onload just before sunset. Grandad was part of the team that went with the surviving occupant. The occupant communicated via telepathic means. It spoke perfect English, and communicated the following:

The disc was a "probe ship" dispatched from a "launch ship" that was stationed at the dimensional gateway to the Terran solar system, 32 light years from Terra. They had been conducting operations on Terra for over 100 years. Another group was exploring Mars and Io. Each probe ship carried a crew of three. A launch ship had a crew of 100. The disc that crashed had collided with a meteor in orbit of Terra and was attempting to compensate it's flight vector, but because of the collision the inter-atmospheric propulsion system malfunctioned and the occupants sent out a distress signal to their companions on Mars. The launch ship commander made the decision to authorise an attempted soft landing on the New Mexico desert. At the same time, the inter-atmospheric propulsion system had a massive electrical burn-out, and the disc was soon virtually helpless.

There was another option available to the occupants, but it involved activating the dimensional power plant for deep space travel. However, it opens an energy vortex around the disc for 1,500 miles in all directions. Activating the dimensional power plant would have resulted in the annihilation of the states of New Mexico, Arizona, California and portions of Mexico. Possibly even further states would have been affected.

Thus, the occupants chose to ride the ship down and hope for the best. They literally sacrificed their lives rather than destroy the populations within their proximity.

The dimensional power-plant was self destructed, and the inter-atmospheric propulsion system was also deactivated to prevent technology from falling into the hands of the Terrans. This was done in accordance with their standing orders in regards to any compromise with contact experiences.

Grandad spent a total of 26 weeks in the team that examined and de-briefed the lone survivor of the Roswell crash. Grandad's affiliation with the project ended when the occupant was to be transported to a long term facility. He was placed on board a USAF transport aircraft that was sent to Washington DC.

The aircraft and all aboard disappeared under mysterious and disturbing circumstances en route to Washington,DC. It may interest you that three fighter aircraft, dispatched to investigate a distress call from the transport, experienced many electrical - malfunctioning systems failures as they entered the airspace of the transports last reported location. No crash or debris of the transport was ever found. The team was disbanded.

Well, I realise I have likely shocked you with this bizarre and incredible account, and seeking to remain unknown likely doesn't do anything for my credibility, eh? And the metal 'samples' only will likely add to the controversy. But, I know you will take this with a grain of salt and I don't blame you, Mr Bell. I just hope that you can understand my reasons and my own desire to maintain my career and commission.

I am passing through South Carolina with an Operational Readiness Mobility Exercise and will mail this just prior to this exercise, possibly from the Charleston area.

I will listen to your broadcast to receive any acknowledging or confirmation that you have received this package.

This letter and the contents of the package are given to you with the hop that it helps contribute to discussion on the subject of UFO phenomena.

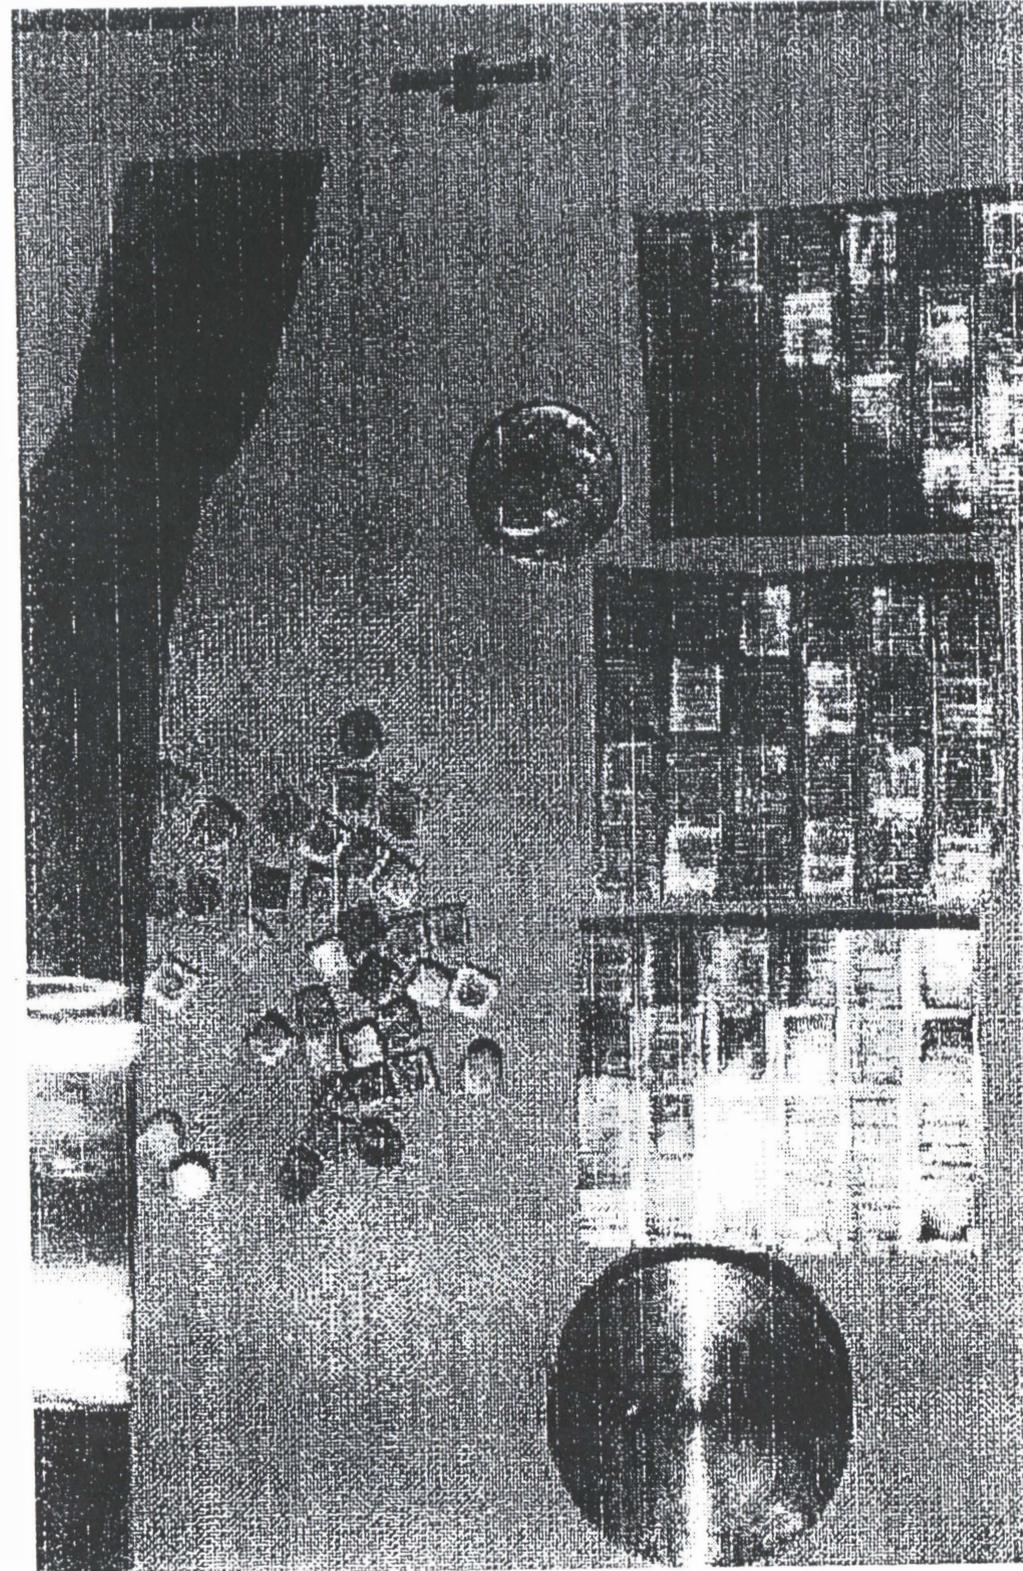

I agree with Neil Armstrong, a good friend of mine, who dared to say, at the White House no less, that there are things "out there" which boggle the mind and are far beyond our ability to comprehend.

Sign Me,

A Friend.

Could this be again one big hoax like the Santilli autopsy footage? Is someone planting red herrings to distract serious investigators of Roswell?

To me the world is presently under conditioning to make the public aware that THEY are coming. This only adds to the evidence that some one is merely manipulating Ufologists for their own means and not the publics interest.

INVESTIGATION REPORT

Date: 5th May 1996
Location: Rawmarsh, Rotherham.

At 10:15pm, Julie had finished watching the television and decided to go into the kitchen to make a cup of tea. Before she switched her kitchen light on she noticed a strange object hovering over the house in front. Julie froze on the spot, she had never seen anything like it.

"It was triangular..one side was red, the other green. In the middle was a dark gap, I can not be sure what colour it was." Julie said.

The object began to move very slowly, accelerating off to her right.

Julie's next door neighbours were on their way home when the mysterious craft passed over the car.

"This craft..it shot straight over the top of us..it was amazing" reported one of them.

This seems like the typical triangle flying over head, there is no way it could have been an airplane as the craft was as big as a house. Classification: UNEXPLAINED.

Date: 1st May 1996
Location: Kirkinilloch, Scotland.

David Belton had finished work at 10pm and decided to take the taxi home. David requested the driver to drop him off at the local chip shop, David bought his supper and made his way home.

Suddenly David saw a big bright object shooting across the sky in front of him.

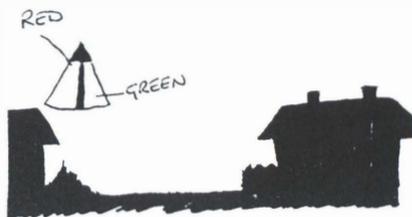

The object was bright white, circular with an orange tail and did not lose altitude. David heard no noise and watched it for about 5 seconds.

On the report form David writes "That it was about the size of a golfball at arms length and that it was in the clouds lighting them up as it went through them."

The object went out of his view, behind some buildings but when he went down the road, hoping to see it again, it was gone.

David Colman of LUPR believes one possible explanation is that it could have been the meteor reported in the local press.
Classification: POSSIBLE IFO.

View from Julie's window-5/5/96

Date: 5th,8th and 9th June 1996

On Wednesday 5th June 1996, Mr P.D.Illingworth saw an object like a large bright light, very much like a star, traversing the sky at a very high speed. The time was 2:55am, there were no clouds on this night and it approached from the north-west.

The next sighting occurred on Thursday 6th, again the UFO was flying in the same direction. A few hours later on the 7th June at 1:26am the object re-appeared.

His last sightings of the object happened on Saturday and Sunday of that week (8/9th June) at 23:53 hours and 00:30 hours.

The man who witnessed these sightings also says he has had on a couple of occasions felt inclined to go to nearby places ie the bottom of his road (a few hundred yards away), he followed his feelings but cannot recall anything unusual happening. He also says since the sightings he has been sleeping heavily and waking next morning with his right arm numb. Investigated by : Adam Hancock.

Date: 28th April 1996

Location: Birleywood golf course.

At the golf course at Birleywood, Sheffield three golfers had an amazing surprise when tee-ing off - a strange shaped object was hovering in the sky! After six minutes and a long discussion they realised it must be a UFO not a black plastic bag. The object is described as "odd shaped", "triangular" and "resembled a hang glider". Possible FT? The object then moved slowly towards them, stopping overhead for a few seconds before disappearing. This incident did not interrupt their game but it did bring a laugh in the club house. Investigated by MJ-24 with help from PRA.

Date: 1993

Location: Aughton, Sheffield.

"One night, about two years ago, I decided to feed my dog in the garden, at about 9:30pm. As I was halfway up the garden I noticed a white light coming from the south east. Because I am located in the flight path for helicopters going to Dishford, I assumed it must be a helicopter. The object was about 500 to 700 feet in the air, no noise was heard from it's engines and it flew at a slow speed. As it moved directly over the top of me, I noticed the underneath of the craft was all lit up with white lights like you see at a fair ground. It then moved towards Treeton, when I saw a bright blood red light on it, this did not go on or off like a strobe light on aircraft. The next day the object was reported to the Star and had been witnessed by two men in High Green, Sheffield" statement from Mr Pearson. Investigated by Gary May.

Date: 1966

Location: Parson Cross, Sheffield.

Wendy Wilcock was visiting her mother's house when she noticed a yellow light that glistened like a star. It was early evening and the sky was clear apart from the bright light travelling very fast from east to west., up in the sky.

"I felt curious about the object, I knew it was not a star or plane".
"I wrote to Patrick Moore the astronomer, and he replied that it was probably a weather ballon or satellite. I am open minded about UFOs, but I do think there is life somewhere in the universe."

CONTACT: THE LAURA SAYERS STORY

Many people believe they are in contact with Aliens. Sounds funny doesn't it? But it is not. People can be bombarded with messages and visions that can drive them almost to insanity. What we must do in a situation with a contactee is to listen to their story and try to learn. Let's face it who to say we are wrong and they are right?

Here is Laura Sayers story:

I have been psychic all my life forever seeing and experiencing things but due to being brought up by a catholic-Italian mother and a sufferer of epilepsy, I was always told to deny it. Only much later in life when I was a mother myself, did my psychic ability come to the forefront. I became a spiritualist while living in South Africa and was re-named into the church there where I began to develop my gift further. From then on my life changed as I was finally allowed to be my trueself. I now dedicate my life to spirit as does my husband Mike, who is a wonderful healer. While in South Africa I began having experiences, even the church could not explain to me. This was with the Aliens of another planet. The Pleiadians. I found this all very difficult to accept especially as the messages they were giving our planet were so heavy and intense, it was difficult to take anything like this in. It began one night, I was lying asleep when I awoke suddenly as if in a trance like state, I sat up. I looked at the clock which read 3am. I turned to my husband who was asleep and could not be awakened. I automatically turned and looked at the direction of the window. As I did this I saw two alien like faces looking in at me and waving furiously. Suddenly, as if by magic they walked intantly through the wall. I could not take my eyes off them as they stood beside my bed. At first I thought it must be a dream but I was awake. Instantly, I was asking myself questions in my head, these beings were replying to me telepathically. So I asked them who they were, the largest one who I feel was female, told me she was my mother and bent down and kissed me on my cheek. Then they both turned and left. As they did so if to prove to myself that I was not dreaming. I touched my cheek where we had kissed to feel if it was wet. Before they left the female one turned and waved to me as a child would learning to wave, bending her hand in two. They were so beautiful I wasn't afraid, just startled. I really did feel a paternal bonding was there, between them and myself. I was a little sad when they left. They were very tall, translucent with pear shaped faces and large eyes. Around them was a beautiful glowing light which was also coming from the solar plexus region of their body. All the room was lit, I tried to wake my husband but as usual he was dead to the world. When he did wake up he was surprised at what I told him. This visit re-occured on two more nights, at the same time and on the 3rd night they brought a young one who I presumed was their child. I did not see them again until about a year later when I was terribly ill and went into a coma like state for over two weeks. This when they returned and stayed with me all the time. I began after this, having lots of minor ailments which I could never get any reason for from my doctor, I think he was beginning to think I was neurotic. I did not tell anyone about this until about 2 years ago when a friend of mine contacted his who deals with people like me. I eventually was able to get a lot of answers to things that had been happening to me in my life and finally things made sense including all the ailments I had which at first I did not connect to. I eventually went to Quest International for a hypnosis session but nothing came from it, even the audio tapes and video by strange coincidence did not come out.

I know deep down there is a lot locked down in the subconscious, still to this day has not come out, yet no-one wants or seems to know how to reach for this. Only when I did some counselling for others did it jog my memory and found it was affecting me equally as much as the patient. I even see things other get which I recognise but cannot as yet understand it all. I know it is not a dream as often I awake, I have bruises which I did not have on going to bed, as well as feeling really tired. Each time I went to the meetings, I was very dis-illusioned as although they were talking about abductions. etc. It was nothing like my experiences. When one spoke to prominent people in this field, you could see in their faces that they thought you were a nutter and some even told you so! Eventually through my spiritual work which by now I was very heavily involved with I began to develop as a medium and a year ago I began channeling from my guide SOLAR who is one of these beings. Since my channeling begun I now run a regular meditation group where Solar and his beings of light come through and relate information to us. The people coming are very open and growing daily, getting great results. We have come along way since our first meeting and I am continually busy working and helping with my husband (A great healer and my strength). Although I have been constantly ridiculed and lost my family through this work, I receive messages from them regularly and now no longer fear them. I know from information they have given me that I am indeed one of their original Starseeds and am here to do a special job. There many thousands of others like me. I often wonder why they chose me. Lots of things have now fallen into place and since accepting this I have no longer had an epileptic attack. Spiritually, I am more active than ever and have now begun a UFO group in Burnley which is difficult. Most people only seem to want to know nuts and bolts yet I feel the spiritual aspect is vitally important so I am trying to use my group to get this through to people. It is a very slow process as people don't tend to want to hear this. I began attending other UFO groups including Quest International but most people tend to poo poo me as they do not understand the spiritual aspect and they look at me as a nuisance or crackpot. I have very strong connections with the American Indians who great believers in Aliens especially the Pleiadians which is where my family come from. I have a great yearning one day to return home there. I love them like my own and feel a great connection with these people who have become so much a part of my life. I have studied greatly the Ascended masters, who also relate to what I am saying and experiencing as well as great bond with Egypt and the pyramids. I know how I have lived past lives there as I often remember things from other lives, as I do from Atlantis and Pleiadian existence. Hopefully oneday, I will return to my home amongst the stars. (I still have contact with these people on a regular basis and infact look forward to their visits). Although I have been practising spiritualism for several years I am now receiving from my fellow friends and guide but it no longer fits in with spiritualism, either one feels between spiritualism and ufology, as they don't belong in either. One feels quite alone with these experiences, yet both need to be brought together for answers. Love and light to your group, keep up the good work. Laura Sayers.

SPOTLIGHT ON.....AFU

The Archives for UFO Research (AFU) publish the AFU newsletter quarterly and was founded in 1973 and the newsletter 1975. AFU is a non-profit private foundation whose aims are to build a Swedish/international UFO library and research archive; to support and encourage serious research; and to stimulate a critical, scientific discussion on UFO's. Here are extracts from their newsletter:

Small triangular object with a jet-like sound by Steve Sandström

One of the nicest summer pleasures for many of us Swedes is to sit idly by one of our thousands of lakes, holding a fishing-rod. Few moments are as peaceful as these moments. Often, it is not catching one or two fishes that holds our attention, but the very mystery of the surrounding nature. Sometimes, however, unknown forces can interact with the most idyllic hour. This is what happened to Martell Åström last summer, in June 1994.

It was a very fine summer's day when Martell decided to go out in the boat that he has by a small lake not far from Floda, where he lives. Floda is a small village about 60 kilometers SW of the north-Swedish town Skellefteå.

There was not a cloud in the sky. Martell took his boat to his favorite fishing area and sat there idly for a long while. The only sound was the waves lapping against the sides of his boat. Suddenly he heard another sound, a sound foreign to the area.

At low altitude, maybe about 50 metres, and almost in zenith, there suddenly came an unknown flying object. It looked like an arrow-head and was black in colour. Martell could clearly see that the object wasn't very big, he estimated it to be about two meters long.

First Martell thought it was an ordinary jet fighter. The sound reminded him of such a plane. He is completely convinced, however, that it was no such plane. His view of it, against the clear summer sky, was too good for such a mistake.

The unidentified object disappeared towards the other shore of the lake. It was then at such a low altitude that it seemed to pass between the trees. This was probably a misunderstanding since the object was by then only a small black spot on the horizon. There are no other witnesses to the incident but I see no reason to doubt the sincerity of the observer.

The most difficult task is to try to judge whether there is a risk that Martell Åström did in fact see an ordinary jet, maybe a Viggen air force fighter, but was somehow mistaken in the strong sun-light.

Probably not so. Even though there is still a chance for such a mistake at a certain angle, Martell could follow this object for quite a distance and he saw it quite distinctly. We can never be completely sure, especially since Martell does not remember the date of the incident, therefore it is impossible to verify if something military was in the neighbourhood.

It is up to each one of us to judge: did Martell see an airplane or not? I do not personally think so because of his dead certain description of the object's appearance.

Readers of the AFU Newsletter may recognize details from another case, published in issue nr 37 ("Miniature stealth-like plane over Lake Vättern"). This incident occurred at Brandstorp, close to another Swedish lake. Five witnesses reported a small, delta-shaped object flying at high speed out over the water. The Defence Staff proposed that the witnesses had seen a radio-controlled model aircraft. Anyone acquainted with model aircraft builders, however, know they are not very keen on flying their treasures over rough terrain or waters.

Small objects have been spotted many times in our area in the last years. We cannot turn away from them. I have a feeling that many answers to the UFO mystery depend on the way we treat and analyze this very special category of cases.

The light that stopped a car by Clas Svahn & Jörgen Granlie

It was shortly before 23 00 on February 15, 1994. Kerstin Hellman had finished her work at the Fagerudd conference center to the south of Enköping (80 km NW of Stockholm). It was a clear and calm winter night and 12 degrees below zero on the centigrade scale. Kerstin started her Volvo 245 to drive 20 kilometres to her home at Grillby. As always she took the small road over Boglösa and Villberga instead of the E18 highway. The moon had just passed below the horizon but the snowcover still made the road bright and easy to observe.

- I was going at about 60-70 kilometres because the road was rather slippery. As I was a few kilometres from home there was a sudden brightness and I looked up. Over a group of trees on my right side I saw a very oblong light that had "spikes" on the upper part. Just as I spotted this light the car started to act irregularly. I looked at the dashboard and noted that the car lights grew weaker and the speedometer went down. When I looked up on the road again - I had to bend forwards - the light took off and it just disappeared. The light was yellow, almost like from a candle light. Very yellow. The car continued some 100-200 metres while the lights grew dimmer and dimmer and finally it stopped. It was completely dead.

Kerstin Hallman managed to roll the car to the side of the road and waited for help. A few minutes later a milk-lorry came by. The driver stopped to help her, but he did not succeed in starting her car. Instead, he called Kersins husband on the phone and asked him to come and help her.

- As my husband sat down at the wheel and turned the ignition key it started with no trouble at all. He managed at the very first attempt.

Her husband tells us he was very surprised when the compartment light lit up as he opened the door and yet more surprised when the car started so easily.

- But next day it was completely dead. I took the battery out and had it checked and loaded at a service station. It was faultless.

A few days after the incident UFO-Sweden paid for a new check-up of Kerstin Hallman's car, especially with a view of finding out if there was something wrong with the electric system. No faults were found. The car, a 1983 model, has a conventional ignition and carburettor system without sensitive electronic equipment. Ice formation in the carburettor could result in engine failure in this type of car but after a few minutes it would usually start up again. Such a failure would not have any influence on the lighting, however.

Another possibility would be that the ignition voltage from the generator was somehow disrupted. Such a failure would not, however, have any large influence on the car's operation in the short distance it was the question of in this case.

UFO-Sweden has also tried to find an explanation for the light Kerstin Hallman saw. A number of possible airports and helicopter owners were checked but none had any activity.

- I sometimes ponder over what it was that I saw but I just don't know, says Kerstin Hallman. It resembled an oblong football with spires turned upwards, fantastically bright. More I wouldn't know.

- Are you convinced that there was a connection between the light and the car failure?

- I can't imagine anything else. It has never happened neither before nor since that the car has stopped in this way. There must have been a connection.

Steve Sandström, chairman of UFO-Skellefteå, and a member of one of UFO-Sweden's assessment groups, cautions us to be careful in our judgement. He remembers a similar incident, without any light phenomenon, that he experienced while driving a Volvo Amazon car.

"Suddenly the car started to go heavy, the engine seemed tortured and the car's lighting (even the lights inside) started to glow a pale yellow. It was as if someone had connected a two-ton trailer to the back of the car. Then suddenly the phenomenon released it's grip on the car and everything was normal. When the interested owner of the Volvo Amazon finally found the fault it turned out to be a loose contact in the generator that caused a short-circuit."

Now this explanation is far from applicable to this case. The battery in Kerstin Hallman's Volvo was OK and the car had started with no problem just ten minutes before the incident. A loose generator would have no effect on the car since there was power from the battery. It hasn't been possible to find any reasonable explanation for the incident.

DIS-INFORMATION IN DONCASTER

Our story starts in early May of this year when John Ball who runs SUFORA's Doncaster Branch (HUFORA) decided to get in touch with the local press for an article on his group. The article told of how John and a number of friends were planning a trip to AREA 51.

Could this article have spurned the American government to act?

A day after the article John received a phone call from a gentle man claiming to have worked near Roswell. He also told how he was the area supervisor at Kirtland AFB during the early 80's. (During the Paul Bennewitz affair..see May 96). After a long talk in which the gentleman claimed that he was currently working on a top secret weapon for the American government. He also said that he would send John a number of Top Secret documents, in the hope John would spread the word.

In late May John received the documents and asked myself to check over them and try to verify the incidents.

When I read the documents I recognised them straight away. The only problem was I had forgot where I had seen them. After checking for over an hour through my books I found them.

The documents had been de-classified in the late 80's and were published in Timothy Good's book, "Above Top Secret".

The documents definately came from America, the stamp and post mark verified that but what was the point in sending out de classified documents?

Area Supervisor

The Area Supervisor or the caller claimed he was the area supervisor as mentioned on page 1 of the documents, but if he was merely a security guard trained by the American government, why would he be working on a Top Secret weapon for the government?

Would you employ a Group 4 security guard to work on your latest laser technology?

The documents had a map attached to them, drawn by the Area Supervisor. When I checked the map next to the maps available, his drawing was completely wrong. He had North where west should have been as well as putting Albuquerque in the middle of the desert. This raised another question.

If he was indeed the Area Supervisor, surely he commanded many men, therefore he must have had a map detailing their routes. Then why would he send John a map that is totally inaccurate?

Dis-information? Maybe.

The Documents

One thing stands out to me than any other - the signature on the complaint form - Richard Doty. Mr Doty is the dis-information agent in America. He fooled Paul Bennewitz and even enlisted the help of William Moore to destroy Paul. In the early 80's he "fooled" Linda Moulton Howe by showing her alleged briefing papers for the President on the problem of UFO's and it is claimed he showed Ms Howe a film to educate GI's about UFO's. Obviously, this was all denied and didn't officially exist. Then in the TV programme "UFO Cover Up", Mr Doty re-emerges as the secret agent "Condor". Interestingly, William Moore was a guest star on this programme and William was the contact between Condor, the tv station and Jamie Shandera (Tv Producer.) Condor told of the grey's anatomy and eating habits (Strawberry ice cream). This was probably the first televised dis-information. But could Richard Doty be the sender of this document? Would a small group in Doncaster really pose a threat?

Conclusions

The documents are real, they are freely available from America's achives but why were they sent to us? Here is a number of ideas:

1. A test? - Could they be testing our knowledge?
2. Sent in good faith? - Did the Area Supervisor not know that they had been de-Classified?
3. A dummy? - Were they sent to dis-courage John not to go to Area 51?

Whatever the real reason, this episode is now over. The Area Supervisor broke his promise to get in touch and therefore no more information can be released(like he promised).

Incidently John received another phone call a day later, from a man who claims to know a scientist currently on the run from the police. (On a shoot to kill policy) and apparently has footage of an under ground base in England with Flying Saucers, Greys etc. He too has now stopped phoning. A hoax? Probably, but the caller did know an awful lot about the UFO scene today but what does this all mean? Two pranksters decided to get in touch with John then fill him up with crap? Who knows?

Copies of the documents sent to John are available from your local American Archive or by sending 50p and a stamp to SUFORA.

Excerpt from the document:

On 2 Sept 80 SOURCE related on AUG 80, three security policemen assigned to 1608 SPS, KAFB, NM, on duty inside the Manzano Weapons storage area sighted an unidentified light in the air that travelled from North to South over Coyote Canyon.....As he approached the structure he observed a bright light near the ground behind the structure. He also observed an object he first thought was a helicopter. But after driving closer, he observed a round disk shaped object. He attempted to radio for back up patrol but his radio would not work. As he approached the object on foot armed with a shotgun it took off in a vertical direction at a high rate of speed. The guard was a former helicopter mechanic in the US army and stated the object he observed was not a helicopter.....

The two alarmed structures located within the area contains HQ CR 44 material. (Does anybody know what that is?...Ed.)

This magazine is called Area S1 because at AREA S1 (Top Secret Military base) there are many hangers with different classifications eg S-4, S-5 etc. At S-4 Bob Lazar worked on flying saucers (so he claims) and since Sheffield's city centre has S1 for it's postcode..hence AREA S1.
(AREA S1 is not the following: a secret password, name of my dog, initials of a top secret group or qualifications for YTS's.)

Thank you.MSJ.
